MR. LYMAN M. DOERR,
WORSHIPFUL MASTER, LODGE No. 2, F. & A. M.

Dear Sir and Brother—

I have carefully examined the History of Lodge No. 2, F. & A. M., of Philadelphia, entitled "FREE-MASONRY IN PENNSYLVANIA," compiled from original sources by Brother NORRIS S. BARRATT, Past Master of Lodge No. 2, and Brother JULIUS F. SACHSE, Past Master of Lodge No. 91, and hereby authorize its publication.

This important work has been carefully done, and will be regarded as an invaluable contribution to the Masonic literature of this country.

Fraternally yours,

GEORGE B. ORLADY,
Grand Master.

PREFACE.

LODGE No. 2, Free and Accepted Masons of Pennsylvania, has rounded out one hundred and fifty years of existence, and desiring to celebrate the event, the Worshipful Master, Brother Harry C. Gill, on December 19, 1904, appointed five past masters of the Lodge, viz:

Brothers Norris S. Barratt, Chairman, John Middleton, Edward C. Miller, John K. McCarthy and Harry Anderson, a Committee to prepare and report the history of the Lodge for the information of the brethren.

On February 4, 1905, the Committee organized with Brother Norris S. Barratt, Chairman, Brother Edward C. Miller, Secretary, and Brother Harry Anderson, Treasurer. Past Master Brother Edward C. Miller, a bright and enthusiastic Mason, died at his home at Bryn Mawr, on January 16, 1907, lamented by his brethren, and Past Master Brother William H. Shoemaker was appointed in his place. The Committee then commenced the examination of the Lodge records.

So many interesting and important facts not hitherto known in relation to Pennsylvania Masonry developed, that it at once became apparent that to properly perform the laborious work satisfactorily one member of the Committee should do it. The Chairman, Brother

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

Barratt, undertook the compilation, and associated with him Brother Julius F. Sachse, Litt. D., Past Master, of Columbia Lodge, No. 91, Librarian of the Grand Lodge Library.

The compilers found that the Masonic historian has never given a complete and accurate history of the beginnings of Freemasonry in the Province of Pennsylvania, nor of the preëminence of Philadelphia as the Mother City and of her efforts, influence and success in establishing the craft in this then far away portion of the British possessions. This we have endeavored to do from the records of Lodge No. 2.

The minutes of Lodge No. 2 and other early Lodges, especially those of the Grand Lodge, as well as the archives, had to be carefully studied. Much of this material, rich in historic interest, necessarily had to be discarded, but our effort has been to let the original papers and minutes tell their own story just exactly as it was written and originally spelled, which we deem the most thorough and satisfactory method, as it will enable the brethren for the first time to have all the facts before them about the early history of Freemasonry in Pennsylvania as shown by the records of Lodge No. 2, and so full and complete they need look no further.

Lodge No. 2 possesses the following records:

Minute book	Lodge No. 4,	Moderns,	1757-1758.

Minute book Lodge No. 2, A. Y. M., 1801–1810.

Ledger Lodge No. 2, Moderns, 1749–1764.

“ “ “ 2, Ancients, 1770–1782.

The early history of Lodge No. 2 is the history of Freemasonry in Pennsylvania. We have divided it into thirteen chapters, each showing a period:

1. Introduction—Freemasonry, 1727–1907.
2. Lodge No. 4, Moderns, 1757–1759.
3. Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M., 1759–1760.
4. Lodge No. 2, A. Y. M., 1760–1764.
5. The Evolution of a Grand Lodge.
6. Lodge No. 2, A. Y. M., 1764–1772.
7. The Genesis of a Provincial Lodge.
8. The Dawn of the Revolution, 1772–1777.
9. Lodge No. 2, A. Y. M., 1777–1778, During the British Occupation.
10. Washington and Freemasonry.
11. Lodge No. 2, A. Y. M., 1778–1780. The Dawn of Liberty.
12. Washington as General Grand Master.
13. Lodge No. 2, A. Y. M., 1781–1786, Under the Provincial Grand Lodge.

This merely brings Lodge No. 2 to 1786. The one hundred and twenty-one years to be covered to record her history to 1907 will be published in Volume II, part of the manuscript of which is prepared. By it is shown many masonically important historical facts which are of profound interest to the craft, many of which are now set forth for the first time, among them that Pennsylvania is the cradle of American Freemasonry. The finding of a copy of “The Constitutions of St. John's Lodge," by Brother Thomas Carmick, dated 1727, proves that St. John's Lodge was established several years prior to 1730. So we now know Freemasonry existed here at least three years before December 3, 1730, which has hitherto been the accepted date.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

A résumé of early Freemasonry in Pennsylvania is necessary in order to understand the relation to it of Lodge No. 2.

1727. Carmick's Constitutions of St. John's Lodge.

1730, June 5. Col. Daniel Coxe appointed Provincial Grand Master.

Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania in 1731 was an independent Grand Lodge and the third oldest in the world. (Grand Lodge England, 1717—Grand Lodge Ireland, 1729.)

1730, July 4. Franklin's Journal shows Lodge of Masons at Bro. Hubbard's.

1731, June 23. Liber B, Treasurer's Book, St. John's Lodge.

1749, June 28. Earliest Minute Book—Tun Tavern Lodge. (No. 3 of the Moderns.)

1751. Great Masonic schism in England. Modern and Ancient York Masons—49 army warrants granted by Grand Lodge Ancients, 1746–1764.

1755. First Masonic Lodge House in America dedicated in Lodge Alley, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (Moderns).

1757, June 24. Lodge No. 4, Moderns, warranted with Brother George Brooks Worshipful Master for seafaring men, artisans and tradesmen.

1758, June 7. Changed from Lodge No. 4, Moderns, to Ancients, and obtained charter No. 69 England and No. 1 in Pennsylvania, which after a short time the Lodge vacated and assumed No. 2 which it still holds, leaving No. 1 for a Provincial Grand Lodge which Lodge No. 2 was about to form. Our records show the Provincial Grand Lodge was formed by our officers and members, and for a time Lodge No. 2 was actually the Grand Lodge of the Province of Pennsylvania.

Preface

The chronology of Lodge No. 2 stated briefly is:

Originally its members were members of Lodge No. 4 of the Moderns, 1757–1759. January 3, 1758, Petition of Brother John Blackwood, et al., to Grand Lodge, Ancient York Masons, London, for a warrant. This petition was granted June 7, 1758, and a warrant for Lodge No. 1 in Pennsylvania was issued—No. 69 on English Register—and received in Philadelphia, January, 1759, and read in open Lodge No. 4, January 23, 1759. This warrant surrendered in 1780 and renewed by Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania—Lodge No. 2 still works under renewed warrant dated June 24, 1789. After this Lodge No. 4 of the Moderns ceased to exist. No work was done until July, 1759, probably in order to close up the affairs of Lodge No. 4.

June 21, 1759, Blackwood's letter to London asking that a Provincial Grand Master of Pennsylvania be appointed.

February 13, 1760, Lodge No. 1, A. Y. M., elected William Ball Provincial Grand Master. This, according to Lawrence Dermott, the Grand Secretary, was issued in London, July 15, 1761, and handed to Brother Joseph Reed, who sent it to Philadelphia. The warrant was never received, as the ship bringing it over was captured by the French.

A most interesting fact is that when the Provincial Grand Lodge was warranted the membership of this august body was composed entirely of members of this Lodge which in the year 1760 assumed the number "2," so as to leave the other vacant for the Grand Lodge about to be formed.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

April 8, 1760. Lodge divided harmoniously in two sections, having two sets of officers, except that there was but one treasurer for both—first section meeting first Tuesday and second section fourth Tuesday of every month.

December 30, 1763, a second warrant was issued in London appointing Brother William Ball Provincial Grand Master, but this never reached Pennsylvania. A third warrant was issued and received in Pennsylvania in 1765 and this date has been wrongly accepted as the date of the formation of the Grand Lodge, Ancient York Masons, when it should have been 1761, so our Grand Lodge is actually four years older than heretofore claimed.

February 2, 1764, Brother William Ball of Lodge No. 2 was installed as the first Provincial Grand Master of Pennsylvania. His first official act was to constitute the second section of Lodge No. 2 a separate and independent Lodge to be known as Lodge No. 3, A. Y. M., with Brother John McAuley as Worshipful Master.

The Provincial Grand Lodge warranted Lodges as follows:

Lodge No. 4, Philadelphia, December 28, 1772.

Lodge No. 5, Cantwell's Bridge, Delaware, June 24, 1765.

Lodge No. 6, Georgetown on the Sassafras River, Eastern shore, Maryland, May 23, 1766.

Lodge No. 7, Chestertown, Kent Co., Md.

Lodge No. 8, Philadelphia Co., June 24, 1766.

Lodge No. 9, Lancaster, 1766, returned December 18, 1779.

Preface

- Lodge No. 10, Baskinridge, N. J., 1768.
Lodge No. 11, Newtown, Bucks Co., Pa., August 17, 1768.
Lodge No. 12, Winchester, Va., October 4, 1768.
Lodge No. 13, Philadelphia, July 29, 1769.
Lodge No. 14, Christiana Ferry, Delaware, December 27, 1769.
Lodge No. 15, Fells Point, Md., January 28, 1770.
Lodge No. 16, Baltimore, Md., September 21, 1779.
Lodge No. 17, Chester Mills, Queen Anne Co., Md., September 16, 1773.
Lodge No. 18, Dover, Kent Co., Delaware.
Lodge No. 19, a Regimental Warrant for Penna. Artillery, May 18, 1779.

By a curious coincidence the date of the warranting of most if not all of these Lodges is synonymous with that of meetings of Lodge No. 2. So intimately was Lodge No. 2 connected with the Grand Lodge, that it is often difficult to know just what body the minutes allude to, as both bodies were frequently held upon the same night, when Lodge No. 2 was apt to close and the Grand Lodge open—all members of the Grand Lodge being or having been members of Lodge No. 2.

How close the connection between the Grand Lodge and the subordinate body was, is best illustrated by reference to the Minute Book of Lodge No. 2, viz:

“March 11, 1768. This Lodge closed and a Grand Lodge opened to do the business.”

“August 11, 1768. N. B. This entry is a mistake, being the business of the Grand Lodge.”

The officers of the Grand Lodge chosen in 1764 remained in their respective stations until 1770. In 1772,

1730—Freemasonry in Pennsylvania—1907

however, for the first time brethren of any other Lodge than members of No. 2 appear to have held positions as Grand Officers. So from the formation of the Grand Lodge in 1761 to 1772, a period of ten years, all its officers, and most of its members, were members of Lodge No. 2.

No meetings were held, so far as the minutes show, between February 14, 1776, and October 15, 1776. Upon the latter date this explanation is recorded:

“The members attendant of this Lodge are extremely unhappy that the present contest (though in favor of liberty) hath rendered it impossible for them to give that attendance which they would willingly have given to this body. They however hope that the extreme necessity of the times will fully compensate for such deficiency conscious that Brother Masons are so sensible of the advantages of freedom as to accept the apology.”

Lodge No. 2 held no meetings from July 21, 1777, until November 6, 1778, or during the British occupation of Philadelphia, being then called “rebels” and now “patriots” because some were in the army with Washington and others away from the city. The Lodge room was broken open by the British when they entered Philadelphia in September, 1777, and all the jewels, paraphernalia and books were stolen by them. Lodges Nos. 3 and 4, being loyal to King George, not only did meet during all this time, but also initiated many British officers and local loyalists.

Lodge No. 2 was evidently regarded as a nest of rebels by the British. The reason for their enmity against Lodge No. 2 is at once apparent when we learn who the members of Lodge No. 2 were and the active part they were taking in the Revolution.

A partial list of members of Lodge No. 2 in 1775-1780 looks like a Muster Roll of the Revolutionary Army, as upon it we find—

Col. Blaithwaite Jones,	Capt. John Burrows,
Col. Thomas Proctor,	Capt. James Josiah,
Col. Isaac Melchoir,	Capt. Edward Ledger,
Col. Allen McLane,	Capt. John Redman,
Col. Robert Campbell,	Capt. John Harrison,
Col. John Parke,	Capt. Robert Mullen,
Col. William Williams,	Capt. Thomas Huston,
Col. William Butler,	Capt. Joseph McCullough,
Col. Richard Butler,	Capt. William Paul,
Col. George North,	Capt. Joseph Price,
Col. Thomas Jones,	Capt. Daniel Broadhead,
Col. Francis Nichols,	Capt. Joseph Davis,
Col. Thomas Smith,	Capt. Wm. Keeler,
Col. John Dougherty,	Capt. John Irwin,
Col. David Espie,	Capt. Peter S. Duponceau,
Col. Hoffnagle,	Capt. William Bradford, Jr.
Major Thomas Hogg,	Capt. Peter Day,
Major Evan Edwards,	Capt. Charles Jones,
Major Jonathan Gostelowe,	Capt. John King,
Major Jacob Morris,	Capt. Thomas Rice,
Major David Lennox,	Capt. John Field,
Major William West,	Capt. Wm. McElhattan,
Major Isaac Budd Dunn,	Capt. John Earl,
Major Edward Giles,	Capt. Jos. Falconer,
Major Laurence Keene,	Capt. Henry Hilton,
Major Archibald Dick,	Capt. Lambert Weeks,
Capt. Gibbs Jones,	Capt. James Anderson.

This roll of honor contains sixteen colonels, ten majors and twenty-eight captains, who all saw actual service and helped to obtain American independence.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

There were doubtless others of our members who served as private soldiers to whom honor is due but whom we have not been able to designate.

We also had members serving in the navy, as the following minute indicates:

“October 17, 1776, Extra Lodge.

“The peculiar and singular situation of affairs having rendered it necessary that the gentlemen [Capt. Lambert Weeks and Capt. James Anderson] who made application and was entered on the former evening should be passed and raised sooner than the usual practice of affairs in our body required, the body took it under consideration and unanimously determined that they should be passed and raised sur emergency as they were going to sea in the service of this Continent.”

This minute shows how a Mason and a soldier performed his duty in both positions.

“February 2, 1779, Extra Lodge in due form opened on Tuesday evening. W. Bro. Col. Thomas Proctor in the chair. After opening in E. A. Lodge requested leave to resign the chair on account of particular business respecting his regiment and Brother Melchoir was appointed to take the chair and our Brother Proctor excused.”

The procession in Philadelphia on St. John's Day, December 28, 1778, by the Grand Lodge, Ancient York Masons, and the sermon at Christ Church by Brother Wm. Smith, D.D., being General Washington's first public appearance as a Mason and as Commander-in-Chief of the American Army then in the field and in Philadelphia to consult with Congress about the campaign, it naturally added greatly to the dignity and importance of the occasion. It resulted in 1780 in his proposal as General Grand Master by Pennsylvania which was defeated by Massachusetts. This sermon was published for the benefit of the poor to purchase wood and other necessities and dedicated to General Washington by order of the Brethren. The title page of this sermon and the dedication is reproduced in fac-simile.

Among the notable events in our history within these six years, 1781–1786, we have:

1. The publication of the Ahiman Rezon (an abridgement of the Book of Constitutions), 1781–1783, by Rev. Bro. William Smith, D.D., of Lodge No. 2.

2. The first organized effort for the relief of indigent and distressed Masons in March, 1783.

The nucleus of the Grand Lodge Charity Fund, which now (1907) amounts to $84,495.80, was commenced in 1815. The earliest record of organized Masonic charity in Pennsylvania is found in the minutes of Lodge No. 2 on March 15, 1783. It contemplated a standing committee for each Lodge in Philadelphia to be styled "The Committee for the Relief of Distressed and Indigent Masons," who shall receive ten pence half penny out of every shilling the said treasurers shall have received for Lodge dues in the preceding month. This was signed by a Committee from Lodges Nos. 2, 3, 4, 9 and 13 in Philadelphia.

3. The Declaration of Peace between England and America.

4. The establishment of a "Sublime" Lodge "Grand Elect and Perfect Masons" in Philadelphia, June 25, 1781. This date seems to be four years earlier than heretofore claimed for the institution of the fourteenth degree.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

5. The failure upon the part of the Grand Lodge and subordinates to raise money for the purchase of the Freemasons Lodge of the "Moderns" and its subsequent sale and demolition.

6. Lastly, the establishment of our Grand Lodge as an independent Masonic Grand Lodge.

Brother George B. Orlady, Right Worshipful Grand Master of Pennsylvania, has not only gone carefully over the proofs as they came from the printer and after verification graciously approved them, which alone authorizes and permits their publication, but has at all times been ready to take up and consider any matter we had to submit to him. His great personal interest and valuable suggestions manifested in so many ways have been in a large measure responsible for the present scope of this compilation, as he at once recognized its importance to the craft, which is very much more than merely the history of a lodge but the history of Pennsylvania Masonry itself, and in expressing our deep obligations and fraternal thanks to Right Worshipful Grand Master Orlady we feel we should state that his hearty encouragement was an inspiration to the compilers in the progress of the work.

In offering this compilation for the benefit of Freemasonry in general and of Lodge No. 2 in particular, we do so with some fear of its possible shortcomings and imperfections from the magnitude of the work, although great care has been exercised to make it accurate. We will be amply rewarded for this labor of love if it enables the craft to better understand and appreciate the interesting and instructive history in Pennsylvania of that great world-wide organization, the Masonic fraternity, which teaches the purest principles of honor and morality, as shown by the labors of our brethren, whose work proves to be plumb, level and square and who have now gone to their reward to that undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveller returns.

Freemasonry in Pennsylvania

1730—1907

CHAPTER I.

INTRODUCTION.

THE story of the beginnings of Freemasonry in the American Colonies, partially shrouded in uncertainty as it is, owing to the lack of documentary evidence, has been a fruitful subject of controversy for writers on Masonic subjects, both at home and abroad. Of late years, however, incontrovertible proof has been produced to establish the claim that Pennsylvania is the cradle of American Freemasonry, in which Colony the Craft was introduced as early as, or before, December 5, 1730, the date given by Franklin in his Pennsylvania Gazette, wherein he says that "there are several Lodges of Free-Masons erected in this Province."

At there are several Lodges of FREE-MASONS erected in this Province, and People have lately been much amused with Conjectures concerning them; we think the following Account of Free-Masonry from London, will not be unacceptable to our Readers

FAC-SIMILE FROM THE PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE, No. 108, DECEMBER 3 TO DECEMBER 8, 1730.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

This is a fact which is further proven by the finding of Franklin's Journal, begun July 4, 1730, wherein Franklin records his business dealings with "Lodge of Masons at Br. Hubbards"; proven also by the Treasurer's book of St. John's Lodge, known as "Liber B" commencing June 23, 1731; by the set of By-Laws of St. John's Lodge presented June 5, 1732, and by the successive notices of the Grand Lodge in Franklin's Pennsylvania Gazette.

Franklin, however, fails to give us any information as to when any of these early Lodges were established. The finding of a copy of "The Constitutions of St. John's Lodge" written by Bro. Thomas Carmick and dated 1727 undoubtedly proves that St. John's Lodge was established several years prior to the date of Franklin's first notice in the Gazette.

Unfortunately we have thus far not been able to

FAC-SIMILE OF THE EARLIEST MASONIC ENTRY IN FRANKLIN'S JOURNAL.

22 Of St. John's Lodge

They always stand to Soccore,
And say that there's no wrong
Done to any Member that there's both belong
The Union that's amongst them all
Throughout the world you see
Is all one Road no way scurvy from Brave good Masonry for which let no man venture to move a right there - without being call'd to order in by the way that's true - for if he doth not surely know
The Scripture tells us who
The part we take pray don't mistake his call from Masonry
And to conclude with heart & good
God grant that we all may Live always in the true way and never swerve a stray
But in spite of Satans might or such as fain would be
The Ruin of all in the Hall

unearth any of the earliest minute books of these Lodges "Moderns" working under the English Grand Lodge of 1717. The earliest minute book known to the Craft is that of the "Tun Tavern" Lodge (No. 3 of the "Moderns") beginning June 28, 1749, but even this is not the first minute book of this historic Lodge. Thus the historian is handicapped and is in a great measure dependent down to this time upon the scant notices in the newspapers of the day. There should be no question as to the regular constitution of our early Pennsylvania Lodges. The appointment of Col. Daniel Coxe as Provincial Grand Master on the fifth day of June, 1730, presents undeniable evidence that there were lawful Brethren residing in Pennsylvania who were recognized as regular Freemasons. The Deputation granted Col. Coxe^{1a} gave almost unlimited powers to elect officers and continue the Grand Lodge, without any further correspondence with the Grand Masters and Grand Lodge of England. In fact the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania in 1731 was in all respects practically an independent Grand Lodge, the third oldest Grand Lodge of the world. With the exception of the Grand Lodge of England, established in the year 1717, followed A. D. 1726 by that of the Grand Lodge of Munster, which merged into the Grand Lodge of Ireland, 1729-30, the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania had no superior in seniority or rival in rank.¹

It will be noted that the Price deputation, which Massachusetts claims gives her precedence, dated three years later (April 30, 1733), contains no such authority.

If the earliest minute books of any of these Lodges alluded to by Franklin are ever found, they will without a doubt show that proper Masonic authority was granted for establishing such a Lodge.

From documentary evidence found among the manuscripts in the archives of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, it can be shown that all the other Provincial Lodges of Pennsylvania, both "Moderns" and "Ancients," were duly constituted by proper Masonic authority.

Pennsylvania's Masonic history is intimately connected with that of the chief Grand Lodges of England, viz:—the Grand Lodge of England of 1717 "Moderns," under whose authority the earliest Pennsylvania Lodges were constituted, and the "Grand Lodge According to the Old Constitutions" of 1753 "Ancients." Under the authority of the latter, the Lodges were constituted that eventually absorbed or succeeded, chiefly for political reasons, the Lodges constituted or working under the "Moderns."

The dedication of the Freemasons' Lodge in Philadelphia, in 1755, stimulated the interest in Freemasonry in the city, and as the lines of the three Lodges working under the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania were more or less closely drawn from a social standpoint, a number of persons active in the political and in the humbler walks of life were made Masons in the Military Lodges stationed in Philadelphia, working under the Grand Lodge of England According to the Old Constitutions or "Ancients."

The question arises: How came it about that the Masonic Lodges which were originally established in Pennsylvania as early as 1730, under the Grand Lodge of England, and which flourished in our community, and within twenty-five years built and dedicated in Philadelphia (1755), with great pomp and éclat, the first Masonic Lodge house in America, were so soon afterwards supplanted by what were known as the "Ancients" or "York Masons," so called, who appear to have been more popular than the Lodges working under the Grand Body known as the "Moderns"?

It will be remembered that, in 1751, a second or Schismatic Grand Lodge of England was formed. This in English Masonic history is known as the "Great Schism." The members became known as the "Ancients." This new Grand Lodge, it appears, was more liberal in granting warrants than the older Constitutional Grand Lodge. This was particularly the case in granting travelling or army warrants. According to an eminent English authority, so far as known there were no less than forty-nine of these travelling Lodges that came to the American Colonies during and after the French Wars (1746-64), thus virtually establishing an "Ancient" or "Athol"² Lodge wherever there was a British garrison. Further, in these Lodges the social lines were not so closely drawn as with the "Moderns." Tradesmen, artisans and seafaring men were not considered objectionable material. In this manner Ancient York Masonry, so called, was introduced into Philadelphia, and, owing to the liberality of the "Ancient" Grand Lodge in the matter of granting warrants, its influence slowly but surely extended in both England and America, while that of the older Grand Lodge of England slowly but steadily diminished in Pennsylvania. Thus, as a matter of fact, Philadelphia became the "Premier" or "Mother City" of Freemasonry in America, of both the "Modern" and "Ancient" system. In the latter Pennsylvania also antedates Massachusetts.^{2a} Further the reason why our "Modern" Lodges were not listed by the English Grand Lodge of 1717, is that the Grand Lodge of 1731 in Pennsylvania was an independent one from its beginning. Eventually through political causes incident to the American Revolution and the troublous times preceding its outbreak, many of the Brethren in Philadelphia felt constrained to renounce their fealty to the older Grand Lodge of 1731, and fraternize with the newer organization of the "Ancients." Most all of these Brethren became members of Lodges Nos. 2 and 3. Thus the "Moderns" were gradually absorbed in the "Ancients" in Pennsylvania, until in the year 1793 the last vestige of the "Moderns" appears on record.

Noteworthy examples of these seceders among many others were William Ball, for so many years R. W. Grand Master of the Provincial Grand Lodge, and the Rev. Dr. William Smith, former Grand Secretary of the "Moderns," and later occupying the same position in our present R. W. Grand Lodge.

Both of the above were members of Lodge No. 2.

Then, again, Philadelphia at the time of the dedication of the Freemasons' Hall in 1755, was the chief commercial port of the English Colonies, with considerable shipping in the harbor, the captains and officers of which, seafaring men as they were, owed fealty in almost every case to the Masonic Brotherhood of the "Ancients." Thus, the York Masons, while only sojourners and non-affiliated, evidently soon outnumbered the membership of the three regular Lodges of the "Moderns" in Philadelphia.

That another Lodge was necessary in Philadelphia to meet the social conditions then existing became evident even before the "Ancients" outnumbered the "Moderns," and resulted in the warranting of a fourth Lodge by R. W. Grand Master Brother William Allen of the "Moderns," which was opened on June 24, 1757, in the presence of Thomas Boude, a prominent member of the Grand Lodge, when the Grand Master's warrant was read, and the following officers appointed for the time being:

Brother George Brooks, W. M.³

Brother John Gilchrist, S. W.

Brother John McAulay, J. W.

The new Lodge was known as Lodge No. 4 upon the Roster of the "Moderns."

Lodge No. 4 of the "Moderns," warranted by Grand Master Allen, did not prove successful, as the class of material it was constituted of and for, seafaring men and officers, had a preference for the Lodges under the "Ancients" who had warranted the Military Lodges, and whose members were constantly increasing in the city. As this became more evident the members of the new Lodge concluded to change their fealty from the "Moderns" to that of the "Ancients." Consequently application was made by these Brethren to the Masonic authorities in England for a warrant. This request was complied with, and under date of June 7, 1758, a warrant was granted for a new Lodge to be held in Philadelphia or elsewhere in Pennsylvania. This warrant was registered as No. 69 in England and No. 1 in Pennsylvania, a number which after a short lapse of time the Lodge vacated and assumed second place or No. 2, which it still maintains, thus leaving the former number for a Provincial Grand Lodge, which, as it appears from the earliest minute book, was formed from or by the officers and members of this venerable Lodge, and for a time it may be said was actually the Grand Lodge of the Province.

It is to this venerable Lodge, which now rounds out a hundred and fifty years of active work, as well as to our Right Worshipful Grand Lodge, that these pages are dedicated, and whose earliest history is here recorded, to the edification of present and future generations, and to the glory of the many good and worthy Brethren who have gone before. Varied have been the vicissitudes of this Lodge during the century and a half of its existence, yet through all its manifold trials from within and without the same Masonic truths are taught, the same great lights rest upon its altar, and the same Masonic charity is dispensed as when first established during the reign of the Second George of England.

CHAPTER II.

LODGE No. 4 OF THE "MODERNS," 1757-59.

N St. John the Baptist's Day, June 24, of the year of grace 1757, about twenty Brethren assembled at Jeremiah Smith's public house¹ in Philadelphia, the exact location of which, however, has not been established. This meeting was the culmination of a number of meetings previously held, having for their object the erection of another Masonic Lodge in the City of Brotherly Love. The Lodge having been opened in due form and duly tyled, a warrant from the Grand Master, William Allen, was read appointing Brother George Brooks Worshipful Master of the new Lodge for the time being. Upon the roster of the "Moderns" this Lodge was entered as No. 4.

The ceremonies of Constitution being ended, Brother John Gilchrist delivered a lecture on the "Kee² of the Lodge," after which the new Worshipful Master delivered a charge to the Brethren with respect to their "Duty towards God and the Brethren." At the same time Brother John Gilchrist was installed as Senior Warden and Brother John McAulay as Junior Warden.

Among those present at this meeting was R. W. Brother Thomas Boude, one of the original members of St. John's Lodge of 1731, and who had served as R. W. Deputy Grand Master, R. W. Junior and Senior Warden at different times. Brother Boude addressed the Lodge and advised the Brethren to rent a room for their meetings in the new "Freemasons' Lodge" in Lodge alley. The rental named was ten pounds per annum.

The roster of the Grand Lodge of "Moderns" organized in 1731 was at that time as follows:

Hon. William Allen, Grand Master; Benjamin Franklin, Deputy Grand Master; Dr. Thomas Bond, Senior Grand Warden; Joseph Shippen, Junior Grand Warden; William Plumstead, Grand Treasurer; William Franklin,³ Grand Secretary; Rev. William Smith,⁴ Grand Chaplain. Among other prominent members at the time we may mention Hon. Robert Hunter Morris, Governor of the Province; James Hamilton, Dr. Thomas Cadwalader, and Thomas Boude, all past officers of the Grand Lodge.

³ The son of Benjamin Franklin, afterwards the Tory Governor of New Jersey.

⁴ Rev. William Smith, first Provost of the University.

Lodge No. 4 of the "Moderns"

The Subordinate Lodges were:

St. John's Lodge, No. 1, Warranted prior to 1731.

Lodge No. 2, Warranted by Franklin, September 5, 1749.⁵

Lodge No. 3, "Tun Tavern" Lodge, Warranted prior to 1749.⁶

The Grand Lodge together with the three old Lodges at this time (1757) held their meetings in the "Freemasons' Lodge" dedicated St. John's Day, June 24, 1755. This Masonic Hall, the first to be built in the western world, stood on the south side of Norris (Lodge) Alley, now Sansom Street, west of Second Street. It was demolished about 1801, when the Bank of Pennsylvania was built upon the site.

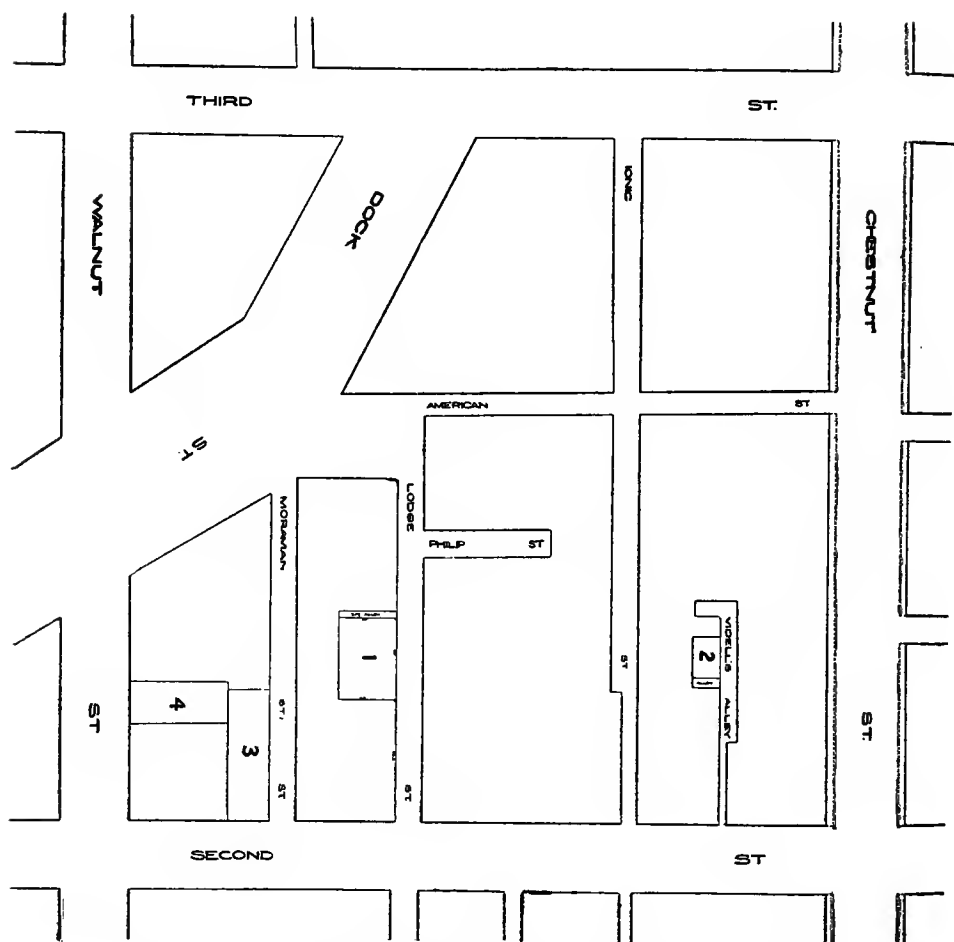

This Lodge Alley must not be confounded with another passageway, "Videll's Alley," just south of Chestnut Street, between 108 and 110 S. Second Street, present numeration west side, where the Grand Lodge of the "Ancients" met, and the present R. W. Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania was formed in 1786. After the Provincial Grand Lodge met in Videll's Alley, this narrow passageway also became known as "Lodge"

⁷ Stephen Videll, after whom the alley is named, was a school-master. He died early in the year 1755. He does not appear to have been married, as by his will, dated January 7, 1755, he wills all of his property to Abraham Robinson, son of Thomas Robinson, of New Castle, Delaware. The will was proved March 14, 1755.

CHRIST CHURCH,

SECOND STREET ABOVE MARKET STREET, PHILADELPHIA,

WHEREIN THE BERMONS WERE DELIVERED BEFORE THE GRAND LODGES OF BOTH "MODERNS" AND "ANCIENTS" IN PROVINCIAL DAYS.

Christ Church was founded in 1695, under a provision of the original charter of King Charles II to William Penn for the creation of the Province of Pennsylvania.

The parish was subsidized by King William III (William of Orange).

Here the Colonial governors had their State Pew.

The Penn family pew was No. 60. John Penn, the last male member of this line, is buried near the steps to the pulpit.

Communion silver presented in 1709 by Queen Anne.

Whitefield preached here in 1739.

The tablet to General Forbes, the victor of Fort Duquesne, 1758, may be seen in the chancel.

The pulpit dates from 1770. The candelabra in the centre isle is for candle-light, and has hung in place since 1749. The gravestones and tablets are mostly of colonial and revolutionary days.

Continental Congress attended here a service of fasting and prayer in 1775, shortly after the battle of Lexington.

The Baptismal Font dates from 1695.

The church organ, built in 1765, has been rebuilt twice, except the front case and keyboard.

The chime of bells pealed forth the Declaration of Independence in response to the Liberty Bell, July 4, 1776. They were taken from the city with the Liberty bell by Continental Congress at the British occupation of the city, and were subsequently rehung in the tower by Congress.

Many members of the convention which framed the Constitution of the United States, 1787, worshipped here during the sessions.

George Washington and Martha Washington regularly occupied Pew No. 58 from 1790 to 1797, while he was President. The same was the official pew of John Adams while President, and was used by the Marquis de Lafayette on his second visit to this country.

Benjamin Franklin was a member of the committee which built the spire, and occupied Pew No. 70; since used by members of his family.

Robert Morris, Treasurer of the Revolution, who is buried beneath the Parish House, sat in Pew No. 52.

Francis Hopkinson, Secretary of Continental Congress and his son, Judge Joseph Hopkinson, author of the national hymn, "Hail Columbia," occupied Pew No. 65.

General Charles Lee, of the Continental army, is interred beside the southwest door; and nearby was laid to rest, after the battle of Princeton, General Hugh Mercer, 1777.

Rt. Rev. William White, D.D., first Bishop of Pennsylvania, is interred before the chancel rails; and his episcopal chair is beside the altar.

General Cadwalader, of the War of 1812, occupied the Cadwalader Family Pew No. 55.

Henry Clay, during the time of his temporary attendance, sat in front of the west column, north aisle.

In the churchyard are interred Peyton Randolph, first President of Continental Congress; Commodores Truxton, Bainbridge, Biddle and Richard Dale; Eleanor, daughter of Nellie Custis (Mrs. Lewis), daughter of Martha Washington, and several signers of the Declaration of Independence, and other persons of distinction.

The American Episcopal Church was organized, its Constitution was framed, and the American Prayer Book was adopted in this church, 1785.

At the southeast of the nave is the "Washington Door," through which was accustomed to enter the "Father of his Country."

Lodge No. 4 of the "Moderns"

Alley, and is so designated in the early directories of the city.

Brothers Rible and Savage were admitted as members upon the first meeting night of the new Lodge, and certificates made out and granted them.

It was further agreed that the officers continue in office for one year, unless charged with misconduct.

July 2, 1757. The Lodge was opened in due form, after which the Worshipful Master read the proposed by-laws, which were all approved, and cheerfully subscribed by all members present.⁸

A petition for initiation and membership was received from Joseph Tatem. He was balloted for, approved and "desired to prepare for entering the next Lodge Night."⁹

August 9, 1757. Lodge opened in due form. A petition for initiation and membership was received from Isaac Vanasite (Vanast) and approved. He was asked to attend next Lodge night, after which, Joseph Tatem "was made and enter'd Aprentice." Four Brethren applied as visitors. Two—Bros. Brown and Davies—were admitted, the others rejected.

August 15, 1757. The Committee¹⁰ met for private business at the house of Jere. Smith.

⁸ These By-laws of the "Moderns" have not come down to us, and are not to be confounded with those sent from England, and printed in full in another chapter.

⁹ Throughout this work the general style of the original minutes is followed. In almost every case the transactions are given verbatim et literatim.

¹⁰ The "Committee" was composed of the elective and appointed officers of the Lodge.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

September 13, 1757. Lodge opened in due form, when Bros. Robert Patton, William Hoge and John McGlathrey were made entered apprentices.

There were four visiting Brethren, viz: Foukes, Nathaniel Faulkner, Dr. Atwood Cowman, James Johnston, all members of Lodge No. 2 ("Moderns"). A memorandum in the minutes states "all behaved as spies from an enemy's camp, as by these minutes will appear."

September 15, 1757. An emergency Lodge was Open'd in due form when Bros. Patton, & Hoge were passed and raised; being seafaring men, and immediately bound outwards.

Isaac Venosits was made an entered apprentice.

September 21, 1757. George Brooks, W. M. of the Lodge and two of his officers viz: Bros. John Gilchrist and John McCauley were summoned before a Committee of Lodges No. 1 & 2 charging them with being "Ancient" Masons, which they did not deny; after a long debate, the matter was referred to the Grand Lodge, who also issued a summons against the Brethren of the new Lodge, and for a time "Detained their warrant" though no record of this fact appears upon the minutes, it being merely mentioned in a subsequent petition.

October 18, 1757. Met at the house of Jere. Smith by order of the Master, a Lodge was opened in due form, when Bro. Joseph Tatem was passed a fellow craft, and John Campbell was "Entred A Enterpren". Brother John Carill "vised the Lodge".

It was also agreed upon, that every member should observe the nights appointed, without being summon'd.

Four Brethren applied as visitors, three were admitted viz Bros. Blackwood, Jones and Bourns.

January 3, 1758. A committee met at the house of Jerem. Smith by order of the Master, when a Petition was drawn to be sent to London, and there to be laid before the Grand Lodge of "Ancients," Requesting a warrant &c.

January 10, 1758. Lodge opened in due form, our worthy Brother Blackwood read the petition mentioned in above minute, He also read a letter to No. 2 of the "Ancients" in London, the said petition was then signed by our Worthy Master, Wardens and Brethren, and sealed in order to be sent to (New) York from thence to London by the first Oppertunity &c. &c.

The same night William Feares, Alexander Rutherford and Abraham Chatten, Petitioned to become members of the Lodge. They were balloted for and “desired to prepare, and accordingly were made En-treprentices” Being well recommended &c. &c.

Following is a verbatim copy of the petition and letter to the Grand Lodge of England and to Lodge 2 of London, above mentioned.

while in Irland, we met Some Brethren there, and on Comparing notes, we found to our, no Small Satisfaction, that we agreed, as Exactly as face answers face in the Glass, on our Arrival here, we found some Travellers on the antiant paths of Truth, who had kept together for sometime and at last agreed, to petition the Grand Lodge here for a warrent which they soon obtained, the number of the Brethren, we are Informed by our worthy Brother George Brooks are twenty, Several of whome are Royal Arch Masons, and worthy men, Brother Brooks was and is as yet at the head of them, as Master of their Lodge by Virtue of the affores'd Warrant, but on finding those were another kind of Masons than had been known here a Number of Charges were Musterd, up against them. Brother Brooks was Sum'd before a Committee of No. 1 and 2 where our Brother prooved Groundless and Absurd, thay soon gave them up, and then Charged them with being Antient Masons to which they plead Guilty the Grand Summon'd them before them, and importuned them to an accomidation in Manner and form in their way, which thay refused, to comply with, & are determined inviolabely, to adhear to the antient princeples Whereon the Grand Master Detained their warrent, so that at present, thay are under several Disadvantages, the Master with whom we have had several Conferrences, received us as Abraham did his Son Issac, as persons from the Dead unexpected, and as if Design'd by Providence, to Alevate the Sorrows of the Distress'd and Persecuted, as we intend not to be in a hurrey till we see where we are, we thought it our duty to acquaint you (our Mother) where we received our first Breath with Simplisity of Children, for your advice and assistance, we therefore hope and desire you^t take care to preferr the Inclosed petition to the Grand Lodge the first oppertunity, and further if you find it wants anything Either to matter or form, we Intreat you^d Appoligize for us and interpose by your kind offices and Countenance, in order to Render it Effectuate for the good end & purposes it is designed, Rather we now present you with an oppertunity of promoting the Antient Craft in this part of the world it now seems to make its first appearance like the Breaking forth of Day after a Long and Gloomey neight of Clouds and thick darkness, we are sure we need not use arguments to incline you to our assistance, of whom we Cant have the least doubt, as to your Willingness In so good a cause, we imagin we see you Flush'd with a generous Emutation Eagerly wishing that the Wings of time would hasten the happy period, that would afford you so good an occation, of shewing you Just, but necessary Zeal for the Antient and Royal Art in Laying our Case before the grand Lodge, Brother Jones and Self are not Joyn'd with these Brethren yet any otherways, then as to the matter of the petition, which we aver to be true, being firmly assur'd the Difference Consists altogether in this, the Petitioneers, are antients, the others are Moderns, and as the Petition Expresses it, we are as sheep without Shepperd, upon the whole if the Grand Lodge, shall as the result of these Deliberations, take us under therere Cears and protection it must remain with them and you & you, as we cant take it on us, dictate to them who the person, or Persons shall be, to whome the Nessesary powers shall be granted, that will Release us in our present Circumstances, we hope that they will put us on as Good a footing, as the nature of our Case will Require, we have preval'd, with them not to make any new Brethren till we have directions and Power from England, in the hopes of which they are Exceedingly Rejoy's^d, it Gives Brother Brooks and the rest of the Brethren perticular pleasure, to heare that the right worshipful, honourable and noble Brother the Earl of Blissington, is at the head of the Antients in England, whose Patternal Regards have been and we hope Ever will be, Extended to the Disstressed, however dispers'd Round the Globe, we Visited the Lodge, St. John's Day, where we toasted our Noble Grand Master, the Grand Lodge, with No. 2 in Howets Court, allso all the worthy Antients from Dan to Bersheba, or if you will wherever they are, Brother Brooks makes the Compliments of an Antient to No. 2 he is an Arch Mason, and was just about to lay their case before the Grand Lodge in Dublin, in whose Books he is a Register'd member and belonging to 183 in Belfast, on our arrival, he and thay most chearfully agreed to Petition, the Grand Lodge of London & that we Shold Importune No. 2 to assist, and Preferr it, in that way and manner, that may be most Agreeable to you it Seems to us, as if the Difference In some things was not Rightly understood by Either partys as appears from the Moderns Granting them a Warrent and also by the Antients applying to them for one, thay soon become They of one another, so that now, thay have not the least Connection, it was not known here, that the Different Bodys, had seperate Grand Lodges in England we are inform'd Creditably, that names of Moderns are scarsley known in Either Scotland, or Irland, however we hope by the Interposition of the Grand, and your Brotherly assistance to be able to pitch a Tent in this Wilderness, that will in a good Degree Shelter Sojourners in their way, from the Scorthing Heat of Summer, and also from the Northern Blasts of Winter, which is as Unfriendly to our Constitution as the former, the want of which here, has been the Occation of some making Shipwrack of Faith and a good Conciance, we think we need say no more to you at this time, we shall request the favor of a Correspondance with No. 2 and hope it will be agreeable to you Brother, as to Postage of Letters, or any other charges, arrising, Either to you or the Grand, you may depend on it, it shall be Punktuallly Remitt'd, please to Consult our Brother Dormitt in this affair, we Crave his assistance if this letter be thought any way Usefull, in Giving Light, or Satisfaction Either to the Grand, or any other Brethren, we leave it at your pleasure to use it as you please, we find we are Obliged to be troublesome to you, But where can we go with Equal Confidence. Brother Jones and Self he Expects to go to the West India's in a little time, he has now a new Ship Building for him and hopes in a little time once more to see you all again, Make our most friendly & Brotherly Regard to all them who Enquier for us in that way, our Compliments to Sister Reed an the Children, I am at loss how to break off, but must least we become troublesom to them we honor and Esteem & shall only Beg leave to Subscribe ourselves Dr Brother yours under the Strongest Obligations of Love, Gratitude & Sincere friendship

James Dimer was ballotted for and ordered to prepare.

A committee was appointed to meet upon the following Tuesday.

[With the reading of the new warrant all connection with the "Moderns" appears to have been severed, and Lodge 4 of the "Moderns" in Pennsylvania virtually ceased to exist as such. From the old minute book, however, it would appear that the Lodge under the jurisdiction of the "Ancients" as it now was, did not get into working order for some months. Regular meetings, however, were held, but no work was done until the May meeting. It appears to have been July before the affairs of the Lodge were finally adjusted, hence the minutes of these meetings are included, together with those strictly belonging to Lodge No. 4 of the "Moderns".]

JOHN BLACKWOOD TO JOSEPH REED, SECRETARY OF LODGE
No. 2 IN LONDON.

PHILADELPHIA, June 21, 1759.

Worthy Brethren

Inclosed you have 1st Bill of Exchang for three Guineas a Draft on Captain George Nicholson he is Master of the Ship William and Mary of this Place, by whom you have this letter, you may find him at y^e Pennsylvania Coffee house, it has been matter of Concern to our Lodge that the Money was not Convey'd to you sooner the Greatfull Sence we all have of your Sincere Love and Offices has aded much to our Anxiety on this account—The Brethren Enjoyn'd it on Me that I tender these most affectionate love and Duty to you not only as a Congregated Body, but also to every Brother in perticular, I doubt not you will be Easily convinced how agreeable this task is to me I am sorry that I cannot do it in that way that I am ashur'd their Sincere Intentions Merit.

Worthy and D^r Brethren be ashured that our hearts glow with the most flaming affections therefore it Cannot be Expected that my feeble pen can fully Express the Language of hearts so fierd with loves as I know ours are to our Brethren of No. 2—We are of Oppinion that the Regestering our names in the Grand Lodge Books, will be of no perticular service at this time as our Communion for Charity Rest Intierly in our own Lodge because of our distant Situation from the Grand, and we apprehend (with submission) it must Nessesaryly Remain so till our Number increace so y^t can Branch out into several perticular Lodges and some proper person is appointed by the Grand to precide over us as deputy Grand Master of Antients in Pennsylvania, which in my opinion will be a work of time but by no Means appears Imbrable. The Moderns are at pres^t a verry powerfull Body thay have thought proper to let us alone ever since the Warrant came

ARMS OF THE GUILD OF SCOTTISH MASONS FROM THE
"BLUE BLANKET" OF 1780.

CHAPTER III.

LODGE NO. 1 OF ANCIENT FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS, 1759-1760.

WITH the transition of the Lodge from the uncongenial fold of the so-called "Moderns" to that of the "Ancients," the Lodge entered upon a renewed era of Masonic life and activity. From hence the meetings were regularly held and proper minutes and accounts kept.

The new Lodge, the first of the "Ancients" to be enrolled in Pennsylvania, if not in the American colonies, started out with forty names upon its roll of membership, and entered upon a course of dispensing Masonic light and Charity, which continues down to the present day. The favor in which the new Lodge was received in our infant community is shown by the increase of membership during the early years of its existence.

The warrant sent out to Philadelphia from England is registered as No. 69 upon the English Register, and was dated London, June 7, 1758. At first the New Lodge of "Ancients" was known in Philadelphia as:

Lodge No. 1, 1759-1760

"LODGE NO. 1 OF ANCIENT FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS
IN THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, AND PROVINCE OF PENNSYLVANIA."

The Warrant and accompanying letter, did not arrive in this country until January, 1759, when, as before stated, they were read before the Brethren at the Meeting, January 23, 1759.

The Lodge locally became known as one of "Ancient York Masons," by which title it was known until recent years, when the Grand Lodge changed from A. Y. M. to F. & A. M.

Another interesting fact, as shown upon these pages, is that when the Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania was warranted, the membership of that august body was composed entirely of members of this Lodge, which in the year 1760 assumed the number "2," so as to leave the other vacant for the Grand Lodge about to be formed.

In the present chapter we print a copy of the by-laws sent from England to govern the Lodge, also the minutes of the Lodge and roster of the Brethren during the period they were known as "Lodge No. 1 of the Ancients." Viz.

¹ Brother Henry Dawkins was an Englishman, and learned the trade of engraver and silversmith in London. He was located in New York in 1754, and the following year had set up in business opposite the Merchants Coffee House, where he "engraved all sorts of metals." Shortly afterwards Dawkins came to Philadelphia where he joined Lodge No. 1 of the Ancients, August 14, 1759.

The following advertisement from the "Pennsylvania Journal," July 19, 1758, is interesting as throwing some light on the range of Dawkins' work as an engraver:

"Henry Dawkins. Engraver from London. Who lately wrought with M^r James Turner; having now entered into business for himself, next door to the sign of Admiral Boscawen's head; in Arch-street; where he engraves all sorts of maps, shopkeepers bills, bills of parcels, coats of arms for gentlemen's books, coats of arms, cyphers and other devices on Plate; likewise seals and mourning rings cut after the neatest manner and at the most reasonable rates.

"N. B. Those Gentlemen who please to favor me with their custom may depend upon having their work done neatly and with dispatch."

During the American Revolution Bro. Dawkins appears, according to the records, to have been a Tory or to have fallen into evil company as he was arrested in May, 1776, somewhere in the vicinity of New York, and was charged with engraving, printing and issuing counterfeit Continental, Connecticut and Massachusetts paper money. He was put into prison and in the trial ensuing he confessed that he engraved the plates, but he implicated the Tory "Rivington, the printer," in the enterprise. It appeared from the evidence that Dawkins had been previously imprisoned in New York for a similar crime. On October 19, 1776, he was still in jail; and on that date he petitioned the Provincial Congress of New York for "the termination of his sorrows by death, inflicted in what manner the Honourable House may see fit." This is the last heard of Dawkins and his ultimate fate is uncertain.

² James Alexander, born in Belfast, Ireland, May 1, 1726, emigrated to America prior to 1750. Married Rachel Craven of Gloucester Co., New Jersey, July 17, 1771. Sea Captain and resided on Spruce St., between Front and Second St., No. 10, as early as 1761. He removed to Southwark in 1788. He was a private in Capt. Richard Barrett's Co. of Guards for Southwark from January 3 to February 3, 1777. He was a member of St. Paul's P. E. Church and buried there upon his death in January, 1795. He was an original member and Secretary of Lodge. His eldest son William Alexander, member of Philadelphia Bar, was made a Master Mason in Lodge No. 3, March 21, 1797. His son Richard Alexander, 1780-1823, was a member of Lodge No. 2 and J. W. at time of his death. His grandson, John C. Alexander, 1821-1885, was made a M. M. November, 1853, and W. M. 1865. William Cummings, 1806-1889, a prominent merchant of the Port of Philadelphia, who married his granddaughter, Emily Richardet Alexander, in 1831, was W. M. of Lodge No. 2, 1837-39, during the Morgan excitement and prevented the Lodge from surrendering its charter. His great-great-grandson, Norris Stanley Barratt, was made a M. M. in 1886, and W. M. in 1895, and is the present Representative of Lodge No. 2 in the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, serving as a member of the Committee on Library. James Barratt, a great-great-grandson is also a member of Lodge No. 2.

Crispia, which were the Members of the Committee appointed. Upon examining into the matter in Debate, we could not find that any Brethren has any money in their hands unless the books be found, if they ever come to hand this dispute is finally settled.

Bro. Gaa was fined 5/ for giving the Chair the Ley [lie] the last night, which is by the 13th article of Laws. Thomas Wattson appears to be 12/ and John Thomson 8/ to the other Lodge. Upon further enquiry we found that this was money due from the two Brethren above mentioned, and we have, concluded to club the Reconing.

CHAPTER IV.

LODGE No. 2, A. Y. M., 1760-1764.

UNDER THE JURISDICTION OF ENGLAND.

OW duly organized, warranted and constituted according to the "Old Constitution" Lodge No. 2 of Philadelphia entered upon an era of prosperity and activity, and soon made its influence felt as an important and permanent factor in the Masonic horizon of Penn's province on the Delaware. How the membership increased, and how accessions came not alone from seafaring men, and the artisan class, but from prominent citizens of Philadelphia, as well, and gradually from Brethren owing fealty to the older Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania is shown upon these pages.

Philadelphia, January 6, 1760.—"A Lodge in due form assembled to Chuse officers according to the Ancient Useag's on S^t John's Day the Evangelist. Brother John Blackwood was Chose Master for the insueing Year by the Majority of Votes, Bro. John McAuly Install'd him in the Chare according to

It is agreed by the above body that in the absence of our Master John Blackwood, that Bro John McAuley is to fill his Chair as Master on the second Monday of every month.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

It is further agreed that the following Brethren have agreed to meet the fourth Thursday of every month under the care and Government of Bro William Ball as Master and are to be governed by the "Bye-Laws" of this Lodge

William Ball	Master Dep ^y .	W ^m Huston
Daniel Topham	S. W.	David Hall
Samuel Watts	J. W.	George Bartram
Alexander Rutherford		Henry Holland
Henry Dawkins

Brother John Biles is appointed Junior Warden in Bro. Ball's Lodge to meet the fourth Tuesday of the month and Brother James Bell is appointed Treasurer of both.

[Here we have apparently an anomaly in Masonic history—a Lodge dividing itself into two sections. Each under a different set of officers except the Treasurer who held the Cash for both sections. That there was no division in the Lodge is shown by the fact that the above names appear to have been regular attendants and officers of the regular Lodge. Consequently these meetings under Bro. W^m Ball were merely held for instruction of the Brethren.]

CHAPTER V.

THE EVOLUTION OF A GRAND LODGE.

THE finding of the long missing first Minute Book of "Ancient York" Masonry in Pennsylvania, commencing in the year 1757, gives us for the first time a positive insight into the earliest history and introduction of this branch of the Masonic Fraternity into Penn's Colony on the Delaware, and the establishment of an "Ancient York" Masonic Lodge within the Province. But what is of far greater importance, it tells us the whole story of the formation of the Provincial Grand Lodge according to the "Ancient Constitutions," and how it evolved, so to say, out of Lodge No. 2 of the "Ancients" in Philadelphia; and, in the course of time, declaring its independence after the American Revolution, became the "Right Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Pennsylvania and Masonic Jurisdiction Thereunto Belonging," now one of the most important and richest Grand Lodges of the Masonic Fraternity, not alone in America but in the whole world, with 470 Lodges, and about 86,000 Brethren owing fealty to it.

As it appears from the minutes upon the yellowed pages of our old tome, as early as January 3, 1758, at the instance of Bro. John Blackwood, a member of Lodge No. 2, London, a petition was sent to the Grand Lodge of "Ancients" in London, praying for a warrant for a Lodge of "Ancients" in Philadelphia. The prayer was granted, and a warrant for Lodge No. 1 in Pennsylvania was issued; this warrant, which was No. 69 on the English register, was received in Philadelphia January, 1759. Accompanying this warrant, there was also sent a set of by-laws for the government of the Lodge, which are now for the first time reproduced in this volume.

In the meantime, active efforts were made towards obtaining a warrant for a Provincial Grand Lodge of "Ancients" in Pennsylvania.

February 13, 1760, the members of Lodge No. 1, "Ancients," in Philadelphia balloted for a Provincial Grand Master. The choice resulted in the selection of Bro. William Ball, of Philadelphia, for that exalted office.

Bro. William Ball, one of the wealthiest land owners in the Province, was a kinsman of Bro. George Washington (whose mother was Mary Ball), and his residence was at Richmond Hall, his estate now forming a large part of northeastern Philadelphia. Bro. Ball

WILLIAM BALL.

BORN OCTOBER 26, 1729. DIED MAY 31, 1810.

PROVINCIAL GRAND MASTER OF PENNSYLVANIA "ANCIENTS" 1761-1782. R. W. G. M. 1795.

The Evolution of a Grand Lodge was made a Mason in Lodge No. 2 of the "Moderns," January, 1750.

Ten years later, however, he renounced his fealty to the older system, which had flourished in Pennsylvania since 1730, and on January 18, 1760, he was entered, passed and raised in the "Ancient" way, in Lodge No. 1 of the "Ancients," in Philadelphia.

Upon the day following the selection of Bro. Ball as Grand Master, a letter was written to the Grand Lodge of "Ancients" in England, applying for a Provincial Grand Warrant; and at the same time a letter was written to Lodge No. 2 of London, asking for their good offices and intercession in the matter of obtaining the much desired document.

How Lodge No. 2 of London responded to this appeal by their Brethren in far off Pennsylvania is shown by the following entry in the minute book of the Grand Lodge of England—the original entry is in the handwriting of Laurence Dermott, Grand Secretary:¹

September 5, 1759—

Heard—A petition (for a Provincial Grand Warrant) from Philadelphia, which petition was seconded by the officers of No. 2.

Ordered that G^d Secretary Dermott shall draw up a proper Answer and deliver it to Brother Joseph Reed of No. 2, who is appointed to convey the said answer to Philadelphia.

1730—Freemasonry in Pennsylvania—1907

Eventually the Brethren were successful in their efforts, and a Provincial Grand Warrant for Pennsylvania was issued. This warrant, which is registered in Volume 3, Letter C, in the Records of the Grand Lodge of England, bears date July 15, 1761. It is No. 89 upon the English register and No. 1 in Pennsylvania—the Subordinate Lodge here having vacated their original number, and assumed that of No. 2, which they bear down to the present day.

This Provincial Grand Warrant, it appears, did not reach its destination in this country, as the ship bringing it over was captured by the French.

That advices of the fact of its having been granted reached this country from other sources, however, is proven by the minute in our old book, under date of March 12, 1761, wherein it sets forth:

It is agreed by the committee to write to No. 2 in London and order a remittance for the charges of the Grand Warrant &c. and have given Brother Ball an order on the Treasurer for seven pounds, seven shillings to defray the expense.

Consequently, we are safe in dating the formation of the Provincial Grand Lodge according to the "Ancient Constitutions," the immediate predecessor of our present R. W. Grand Lodge in the year 1761, four years prior to what has heretofore been the accepted date.

When it became known in London that this warrant was not received, a second warrant was issued, but this, for some unknown reason, also failed to reach its destination; advice of its issue from the Grand Secretary, however, was received by the Brethren in Philadelphia—this letter was read at an extra Lodge held December 30, 1763, and conclusively proves to us that the Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania was upon the register of the Grand Lodge of England as a duly warranted and accredited body, long prior to the date of the third warrant which was actually received by the Philadelphia Brethren in 1765, and has wrongfully been accepted as the date of the formation of our Grand Lodge according to the “Ancient Constitutions.”

The following is a copy of the Grand Secretary's letter:

TO THE RT. WORSHIPFULL MR. WILLIAM BALL.

GRAND MASTER OF PHILADELPHIA—GREETING

Worshipfull Sir:

I have the honor of greeting you in the name of the Grand Lodge of England, and acquainting you that on St. Johns day last, the following Gentlemen were Installed in ye Grand Lodge—London vizt:—The Right Honourable Earl Kelly &c Grand Master, Mr. William Osburn deputy G. M., Mr. William Dickey, Senior Grand Warden, and Daniel Garnault, Esqr. Junr. Grand Warden.

The Bearer our Worthy Brother Capt. John Crawford has my Certificate under the Grand Lodge Seal and will inform your Worship in all matters relating to the Craft in this part of the World. The names of your Grand Officers and Secretary, signed by himself will greatly Oblige the Fraternity and London Feby. 4th, 1763.

P. S. The Grand Lodge has ordered that no Mason from America & C is capable of Joining a Lodge in England without producing a Certificate of his good Behaviour &c and hope you'l cause the like to be observed with respect of persons from England.

That this letter and request from Grand Secretary McDermott were at once complied with, is shown by the following extracts from the Minute Book of the Grand Lodge of England:²

Grand Lodge Minutes, 2^d December 1772:

“D. G. Master Dermott laid before this Lodge a certain manuscript attested by Bro. John Wood, G. S. in Philadelphia as the Transactions of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, commencing on the 30th day of December 1763,³ and continued to the 30th of April 1772.

“Unanimously Agreed and Ordered that a Committee consisting of the Grand Officers should take the said Transactions, &c., into their serious consideration, and that their judgement upon the whole should be Decisive and final.

³ It will be noted that the dates correspond with date when Dermott's letter was read before the Lodge, December 30, 1763. Cf. Henry Sadler, “Masonic Reprints and Revelations,” p. 84.

The Evolution of a Grand Lodge

ibid 15 December, 1773

“Heard the Answer sent to the Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania to their Transactions, which was unanimously approved of.”

As shown by the old Minute Book of Lodge No. 2, the Lodge, as early as April, 1760, was divided into two sections. The regular meetings were held on the second Tuesday of the month, while the second section met on the fourth Tuesday. Each section had its own set of officers, the only official who held position in both sections was Bro. James Bell, the Treasurer. Bro. William Ball was the Master of the second section.

These two sections of the Lodge were continued under the warrant of Lodge No. 2 until the close of the year 1763. Then it was decided to form a new Lodge out of the membership of Lodge No. 2. As set forth in the minutes of January 23, 1764, the separation was an amicable arrangement, the seceding Brethren being given the choice of forty-five pounds in cash, or the jewels and “tools” used by them in the Lodge.

As a result of the reading of Grand Secretary Laurence Dermott’s letter at the Lodge, December 30, 1763, an Extra Lodge was called to meet February 2, 1764, presumably at Jeremiah Smith’s Tavern. Upon this night there was a full attendance. The special business of the evening was nothing less than the installation of the Right Worshipful Grand Master.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

Fortunately we have a detailed account of the solemn ceremony, which we believe to be unique in Masonic literature.

Let us draw a picture of the scene recorded upon the pages of our old Minute Book. The room dimly lit by candles, half yellow wax and half tallow, the whitened walls begrimed with tobacco smoke, the freshly sanded floor, a well filled sideboard in the north, the Pedestal with our Great Light in the center of the room, the lesser Lights also in place, the officers in their stations and places, the Brethren seated on the sides of the room, Bro. Blaithwaite Jones in the Oriental Chair.

A Grand Lodge was opened in due form. The Lodge then proceeded to confirm Bro. William Ball as "Provincial Grand Master of Ancient York Freemasons in the Province of Pennsylvania," and the old record further tells us, "Pro Tempore until further orders from England." This formality ended, the Brethren proceeded to install the Grand Master. A procession was formed by the Brethren as set forth in our old Minute Book.

First came the Tyler—Bro. David Erwin.

Second—two Stewards, Bros. Robert Wilson and John Child with rods.

Third—Secretary Bro. John Wood, with his book and pen, and Treasurer Bro. James Bell, with purse bag.

The Evolution of a Grand Lodge

Fourth—Bro. John Middleton, with the First Great Light.

Fifth—Bros. George Bartram and John Folwell, with the Second Great Light.

Sixth—Bro. Hugh Thompson, as First Warden.

Seventh—Bro. David Hall, Senior Grand Warden, and Bro. Hugh Lennox, Junior Grand Warden.

Eighth—Bro. Alex. Rutherford, with Sword of State, and Bro. John McAuley, with Book of Constitution.

Ninth—Bro. Alexander Rutherford, Worshipful Master of Lodge 2, and Bro. William Ball, Right Worshipful Grand Master-Elect.

After moving around the room three times, the Brethren were seated, and the Grand Secretary, by order of Worshipful Master Rutherford, proclaimed Bro. William Ball Grand Master of Ancient York Masons for the Province of Pennsylvania, after which the Grand Master expressed his thanks to the Brethren, and was accorded the homage of the Craft in due and ancient form.

The procession was then marshaled as before, and proceeded three times around the Lodge.

Thus ended the ceremony of installing the first Provincial Grand Master “according to the Ancient Institutions,” in Pennsylvania.

The first official act of the newly installed Grand Master was to constitute the Brethren demitting from Lodge No. 2 into a separate and independent Lodge, which was to be known as Lodge No. 3, "Ancient York Masons." Bro. John McAuley was constituted Master of the new Lodge. Bro. McAuley, it will be noted, was Junior Warden, when the Lodge was warranted by Grand Master William Allen of the "Moderns," in 1757.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

At the meeting held February 14, 1764, Bro. McAuley, Worshipful Master of Lodge No. 3, informed the Grand Lodge that they had selected the third Tuesday of the month as the time for their stated meetings.

It is not known who composed the first set of officers of Lodge No. 3, beside the Worshipful Master, Bro. McAuley, nor has the wording of the original warrant or dispensation, under which the Lodge was held, been preserved.

On St. John the Evangelist's Day, December 27, 1764, at the regular election held, the following officers were chosen:

Bro. Samuel Watts, W. M.

“ John Folwell, S. W.

“ Henry Dawkins, J. W.

These Brethren were presented to the Right Worshipful Grand Master at an Extra Grand Lodge, held January 1, 1765, and were duly installed by him in the ancient way.

The officers of the Provincial Grand Lodge were:—
Bro. William Ball, Right Worshipful Grand Master.

“ Blaithwaite Jones, Deputy Grand Master.

Bro. David Hall, Senior Grand Warden.

“ Hugh Lennox, Senior Junior Warden.

“ John Wood, Grand Secretary.

The next Lodge warranted by our Grand Lodge was one located at Cantwell's Bridge, now Odessa, in New-castle County, Delaware.

This dispensation was granted on St. John the Baptist's Day, June 24, 1765, and was registered as Lodge No. 5. The officers were:

Bro. William Bradford, W. M.

“ Peter Wyatt, S. W.

“ Duncan Beard, J. W.

For some reason the number “4” was held vacant by the Grand Lodge for some years. The cause for this action cannot be given at the present day, except perhaps that it was thought desirable to keep the first three Lodges in numerical order in Philadelphia.

At the meeting held September 10, 1765, the minutes of Lodge No. 5 were read before Lodge No. 2, and ordered to be laid before the Grand Lodge.

As was before stated, the two first Provincial Grand Lodge warrants issued by the Grand Lodge in England failed to reach their destination. It was late in 1764, or some time during 1765, when the third warrant, which bears the date June 20, 1764, was received. This venerable document is still in the archives of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, and is here reproduced in reduced fac-simile.

There was also received, during the year, the following interesting letter from Laurence Dermott, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of England; it was addressed to Bro. William Ball, Right Worshipful Grand Master, and explains the trouble about the delay and non-receipt of the first two warrants for the Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. This letter was written after the third warrant had been sent to Philadelphia.⁴

LONDON January 11th 5765

Although Lodge No. 3 was duly constituted some months before the third Provincial Grand Lodge warrant finally reached Philadelphia, February 2, 1764, and its officers duly installed by the Grand Officers in the Grand Lodge, a regular warrant was not issued until several years later. This document, the oldest American Masonic warrant known, according to the "Old Constitutions" bears date October 20, 1767, and is here reproduced verbatim for the first time from the original copy in the archives of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania:

How the Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania extended its Masonic jurisdiction beyond the bounds of the Province, is shown by the number of warrants granted to country Lodges in the early days of its existence, prior to warranting the third Lodge, "N^o 4," in Philadelphia, viz:

Lodge No. 5, Cantwell's Bridge, Delaware, June
24, 1765.

Bro. Myrick Davis, S. W.; Bro.
Joseph Richardson, J. W.

Lodge No. 9, Lancaster, Pennsylvania [1766],⁶ returned Dec. 18, 1779.

Lodge No. 10, Baskinridge, New Jersey, 1768.

Lodge No. 11, Newtown, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, granted August 17, 1768, surrendered December 24, 1781. Reissued to Brethren in London Grove Township, Chester County, February 16, 1782: Bro. Wm. Finsley, W. M.; Bro. Ezekiel

⁶ From the following Minute on the books of the Right Worshipful Grand Lodge it appears that a warrant or dispensation for a Lodge at Lancaster was granted. The proper date for this Warrant is undoubtedly some time during 1766. (Cf. Minutes of Lodge No. 2.)

“PHILADELPHIA, July 27, 1780.

“A petition signed by Brothers D. Copeland, Joseph Page, Ambrose Croker, Jacob Diegel, James Thompson, Jacob Frank, John Service, and Matthew Whitehead, of No. 4, with an affectionate and honorable Recommendation from the Masters and Wardens of that Lodge, praying to be constituted into a new Lodge, was read; and the ballot being put, it was unanimously voted that a warrant be granted agreeable to the Pray'r of the said Petition, which warrant is to be numbered Nine—the Warrant of that number formerly granted for the Borough of Lancaster having been call'd in and Surrendered to this Lodge about ago, and no application made for renewal of same.”

Lodge No. 12,⁷ Winchester, Virginia, granted October 4, 1768. Bro. James Gamut Dowdall, W. M.; James Lindsay, S. W.; Samuel Dobie, J. W. Surrendered January 5, 1807.

Lodge No. 13, Philadelphia, July 29, 1769:⁸ Bro. John Deas, W. M.; Bro. John Hoodloss, S. W.; Bro. Jeremiah Swain, J. W.

Lodge No. 14, Christiana Ferry, afterwards at Wilmington, Delaware, December 27, 1769: Bro. Hugh McConnell, W. M.; Bro. Jonathan Jerdan, S. W.; Bro. Joseph McGarraugh, J. W.

Lodge No. 15, Fell's Point, Maryland, January 28, 1770.

It will be seen from above list, that all of these Lodges antedate the warranting of Lodge No. 4, so-called, in Philadelphia. A full account of the formation of this Lodge forms the subject of another chapter of this volume.

By a curious coincidence, the date of warranting most or all of these Lodges is synonymous with that of meetings of Lodge No. 2. So intimately was Lodge No. 2 connected with the Grand Lodge, that it is often difficult to know just which body the minutes allude to, as both bodies were often held upon the same night, when Lodge No. 2 was apt to close and the Grand Lodge opened—all members of the Grand Lodge being or having been members of Lodge No. 2.

How close the connection between the Grand and Subordinate Body was, is best illustrated by reference to the Minute Book of Lodge No. 2, viz:

March 11, 1768. "This Lodge closed and a Grand Lodge opened to do the Business."

August 11, 1768. "N. B. This entry is a mistake being the business of the Grand Lodge."

Further, how intimate the intercourse and bond, was at that time between our American Lodges and the European Brethren who held fealty under the Grand Lodges abroad "according to the old Constitutions" is shown by an edition of the Ahiman Rezon published at Dublin in 1770 "for the use of all Lodges in England, Ireland and America."

A fac-simile of the title page of this rare volume in the Library of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania is here reproduced, also the didication.

As St. John the Evangelist's Day, December 27, 1772, fell upon a Sunday, the installation and attendant festival was held upon the following day, Monday, December 28. Lodge No. 2 was opened in ample form, at four o'clock in the afternoon, when the various officers were installed in due and ancient form, and the appointments made.

A warrant having finally been granted to the Brethren in Philadelphia for a Lodge to be known as Lodge No. 4, it bore date St. John the Evangelist's Day, December 28, 1772. The officers named therein will be recognized as prominent factors upon the pages of our old Minute Book, viz:

Bro. Stephen Cronin, W. M.

“ Daniel Topham, S. W.

“ Robert Bunbury, J. W.

At five o'clock, the Grand Lodge was opened, and the Brethren were joined by those of Lodges No. 3 and No. 4, the latter Lodge presenting their officers for installation.

After the Grand Lodge was closed, the social feature was attended to, and the annual festival held with more than usual eclat.

That mine host of “ye Sign of Sir John Falstaff” had made ample provision for the Brethren, is shown by the following memorandum found between the pages of our old ledger, viz:

Grand Lodge of Ireland.

SIRs and Brethren,
TO whom could I possibly (with greater Propriety) dedicate this Edition of Ahiman Rezon with Additions, than to you who have confessedly constituted and established one of the first Lodges of Free and ACCEPTED MASONS, in the three Kingdoms; a Lodge, that has been productive of the most munificent Acts of Charity and Benevolence.

You have, Gentlemen, released the Prisoner, comforted the Weary, and given Food and Raiment to the Hungry and the Naked. Your Lodge has been the happy Asylum to Strangers, “ friend-

DEDICATION TO DUBLIN AHIMAN REZON OF 1770.

The Evolution of a Grand Lodge

iv DEDICATION.

“less! till their propitious Stars direct“ed them to you:” You pay no particular Attention to Country, Religion, or to Station, but are happy in diffusing Bliss indiscriminately to all the honest and worthy of every Denomination, of every Country, of every Persuasion, and of every Rank.

And you have not only established one of the most respectable and numerous Lodges in the World, in DUBLIN, but you have been the glorious Means of reviving the Royal Craft all over this Kingdom; and Lodges which have long lain dormant and neglected, are now forming and reconstituting with redoubled Ardour; indeed 'tis now not only honourable but fashionable to be a Free-Mason. Go on and prosper, and may your Endeavours to illumine the hitherto unenlightened Part of Mankind meet with that Success the generous Undertaking deserves.

Which are the earnest Wishes and Prayers of,

GENTLEMEN and BRETHREN,

Your affectionate BROTHER,

And obedient humble SERVANT,

THE EDITOR.

After dinner was disposed of, the flowing bowl passed around, and healths were drank to the Grand Masters of England and Pennsylvania. During the evening, the following ode was sung, it being especially composed for the occasion:

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

RECITATIVE.

Behold the social band appears!
Imparting joy, dispelling fears!
And wak'd by duty and by choice,
Command the sons of freedom to rejoice.

SONG.

Boast not, mortals, human skill,
If the sculptur'd dome you raise,
Works of art by fancy's will,
Lead us oft thro' folly's maze.
What if Phidia's chissel guide!
What if Titian's pencil grace?
Marble flatters but our pride,
Bane of all the human race!

RECITATIVE.

'Tis from the watchful culture of the mind,
A well-directed soul, a sense refin'd,
That heav'nly virtues spring to grace the man;
This be our noblest conflict and our plan!

AIR.

Let the diamond's lustre blaze,
Call its water bright and clear,
But confess the greater praise,
Rests on pity's tender tear,
May the social virtues bind,
Tune each sympathetic heart,
Raise the feeble, lead the blind,
Wipe the tear that swells to part.

RECITATIVE.

Ye blessed ministers above,
Who guard the good with purest love,

The Evolution of a Grand Lodge

Propitious hear the notes of praise,
While Briton's sons their voices raise.

AIR.

Blessings await this Western Land,
Blessings o'erflow with lib'ral hand,
Commerce uprears our infant state,
And golden currents make us great;
Fair science lifts her head and cries,
" I come to make you good and wise: "
These be the glories of each day,
Marking our Monarch's gentle sway.

RECITATIVE.

Our social band, by love and honor join'd,
Unite their zeal, as friend to human kind:
The mystic sense is out, the sign does move,
Behold the sign! Peace, Harmony and Love.

DUETTO.

Let the day be ever prais'd
When the Royal Craft was rais'd,
Let the social virtues shine,
Doing good is sure divine.

CHORUS.

Give the heroes all their due,
Twine their brows with laurels, too;
But shall we no laurels find;
For our love to human kind?
Let the social virtues shine,
Doing good is sure divine.

The earliest regular minutes we have of the "Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania and Territories

1730—Freemasonry in Pennsylvania—1907

Thereto Belonging," commence July 29, 1779. Prior to this date, three other Lodges were warranted by our Grand Lodge, viz:

Lodge No. 17, Chester Mills, Queens Town, Queen Anne County, Maryland, September 16, 1773.

Lodge No. 18,⁹ Dover, Kent County, Delaware; Bro. Mark McCall, W. M.; Bro. George McCall, S. W.; Bro. Henry Bell, J. W.

Lodge No. 19, A regimental warrant for the Pennsylvania Artillery, May 18, 1779.

The officers of the Grand Lodge, as chosen in 1764, appear to have remained in their respective stations until 1770, viz:

Bro. William Ball,¹⁰ Grand Master.

⁹ Minute book in the Archives of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

¹⁰ Bro. William Ball, the first Provincial Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania according to the Ancient Constitution, was originally made a Mason in Lodge No. 2 of the Moderns, his petition was dated December 27, 1750. He was entered January 9, 1750/1, passed February 13, raised March 13th of same year.

As shown by our minutes on January 10, 1760, he was regularly entered, passed and raised in the "Ancient" way. It is a curious fact that although Bro. Ball joined our "Ancients" in 1760, he remained a member of the "Modern" Lodge No. 2 until June 24, 1763, and paid his dues regularly, as is shown by the old Ledger in our archives.

Bro. Ball served longer in the office as Grand Master than any other incumbent. As Provincial Grand Master he served continuously from 1761 to 1781, and after the Grand Lodge became an independent one, he was again called upon to serve as Grand Master during the year 1795.

The Evolution of a Grand Lodge

Bro. Wm. Ball was the son of William Ball, a merchant and planter (b. Sept. 12, 1686; d. Sept. 8, 1740), who purchased, March 21, 1728/9, the "Hope Farm" a manor created by patents under Governors Lovelace and Andross from the Duke of York. This manor was situated in Shackamaxon (afterwards the Districts of Richmond and Kensington) and contained 676 acres besides the flats thereunto belonging. This tract was successively known as "Richmond," "Port Richmond" and "Balltown," all of which is now consolidated within the City of Philadelphia.

The subject of this sketch was the eldest son of the emigrant (b. Oct. 6, 1729), married Elizabeth Byles, a niece of Mather Byles, D.D., of Boston, Mass. Bro. Ball learned the goldsmith trade and was a member of that Guild at London. There are evidences that Bro. Ball in his younger days practiced his profession in Philadelphia, but retired from active business in middle life. However in the Great Federal Procession, July 4, 1788, Brother Ball as senior member of the Section of Goldsmiths, Silversmiths and Jewelers, walked in front of the section carrying a golden urn.

Bro. Ball was one of the richest men in the Province, the whole of his father's estate eventually coming into his possession. The seat of the Ball family was known as "Richmond Hall" and stood within what is now the Reading Railroad property. His town house was on the north side of Market St. (old number 41), about half-way between Front and Second Street.

Bro. Ball died on the 30th of May, 1810, in his 81st year and was buried with full Masonic honors on the following day, in the Grave Yard of the First Baptist Church then in Fromberger's Court (later known as LaGrange place) west of Second Street below Arch Street. Bro. Ball's remains rested here until the church and graveyard were sold in 1862, when the remains and tombstone were removed to Laurel Hill. For a full account of his burial see Volume II., reprints of Minutes of Grand Lodge, pp. 458 et seq.

Bro. Ball, appears to have died a widower, leaving a will dated December 4, 1809, proved June 2, 1810 (Will Book 3, p. 193), by which he devises the bulk of his estate to the children of his nephew, Joseph Ball. An association has lately been formed to recover the landed estates of William and Joseph Ball, and a volume has been published in their interest, "A Pennsylvania Pioneer" (Mansfield, O., 1900).

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

Bro. Blaithwaite Jones, Deputy Grand Master.¹¹

¹¹ Bro. Blaithwait Jones, was a son of Gibbs Jones, and grandson of John Jones, one of the early Colonists, a member of the Common Council in 1691, Alderman 1701, and Justice of County Courts to 1707. Bro. Jones, child of Gibbs and Jane (Crapp) Jones, b. Philadelphia, June, 1726, baptized in Christ Church when six weeks old, July 21, 1726.

From the correspondence in the Records of Lodge No. 2 it appears that Bro. Jones in his younger days followed the sea, and was made an "Ancient" Mason in either England or Ireland. He is noted as a visitor in Lodge No. 2 at different times, and petitioned for membership October 26, 1763, ballotted for and approved November 8, 1763, and elected Worshipfull Master December 27, 1763, and a year later appears as Deputy Grand Master of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, an office which he held for a number of years. Brother Jones was one of the most active and enthusiastic Freemasons in the province as appears from our records. When the American Revolution broke out he espoused the cause and was an ardent patriot during that struggle.

When Congress ordered that fortifications be constructed at Billingsport, for the defence of Philadelphia Bro. Blaithwait Jones was selected to direct the work as is shown by the Minutes of the Council of Safety, under date 15 February, 1777:

"Resolved, That Blaithwaite Jones Esq., be appointed Chief Engineer at Billingsport, with Rank, pay, and Rations of a Lieu't Colonel; and all Officers and soldiers under his Command, as well as Workmen employ'd there, are to obey him as such, until the Fortifications at that place are Completed, or until it shall be otherwise ordered by proper Authority.

"At the Meeting of the Council at Lancaster May 11—1778 Lieut. Col. Jones attended the Meeting—and requested either the whole or part of the pay due him.

"The Council taking the same into Consideration, and it appearing that he was appointed by the late Council of Safety, on the 15th of February 1777, as an Engineer for the Fortifications at Billingsport, to continue until the same shall be completed, or until otherwise ordered by proper Authority.

"Ordered, That Lieut. Col. Blaithwaite Jones be allowed pay until this day, & that as the service to which he was appointed hath ceased, that he be discharged.

BLAITHWAITE JONES.

BORN JUNE, 1726. DIED AUGUST, 1789.

FIRST DEPUTY GRAND MASTER OF PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The Evolution of a Grand Lodge

Bro. David Hall,¹² Senior Grand Master.

"That Col. Jones be informed at the same time, that this Council is disposed to employ him in such department as may require his abilities, as occasion shall offer—"

It does not appear that Bro. Jones was able to get the money due him at the time, as shown by the following minute in Supreme Executive Council just ten years later.

"The Comptroller General's report upon the account of Blaithwaite Jones for his services as an Engineer employed at Billingsport and other places on the Delaware, in the years 1777 and 1778, was read and approved, and an order drawn for Eighty pounds, in part of the ballance due upon the same. A certificate to issue for the Remainder."

The date of Bro. Jones death does not appear to be known, except that he died before August 10, 1789, as shown by a petition to Orphans' Court, by widow of Capt. Gibbs Jones, a son of Bro. Blaithwaite Jones, and also a former member of Lodge No. 2.

Dr. John B. Shober a great-great-grandson of Bro. Blaithwaite Jones, is a member of University Lodge No. 610 of Pennsylvania.

¹² David Hall, the first Senior Grand Warden of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, according to the old Constitution, known as the Ancients, was made a Mason in Lodge No. 2 Ancients. The date of his petition and entering does not appear to have been recorded in the minutes. He was, however, passed to Fellow Craft at the regular meeting January 6, 1760, and raised to Sublime Degree of a Master Mason on the following 12th of February. He served as Master of the Lodge from December 27, 1761, to same date, 1762. He also served as Senior Warden of his Lodge from December 27, 1763, to same date, 1764, being reelected to both stations in the June elections of both years. December 27, 1765, he was elected Treasurer of the Lodge, serving until December 27, 1769.

Brother David Hall was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1714, d. Philadelphia, December 24, 1772. He learned the printing business at Edinburgh, and as a journeyman worked with Strahan in London. He came to America about 1747 and entered into partnership with Benjamin Franklin, which was dissolved in 1766, and formed another with William Sellers. This firm published the Pennsylvania Gazette and printed the paper money during the Revolutionary War. He also conducted a large book and stationery store on the north side of High (Market) St. east of Second St.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

Bro. Hugh Lennox,¹³ Junior Grand Warden.

“ John Wood, Grand Secretary.

No records for 1771 have come to our notice.

In the year 1772, however, changes appear in the personnel of the officers, viz:

Bro. William Ball, Grand Master.

“ John Wood, Deputy Grand Master.

“ William Shute,¹⁴ Senior Grand Warden.

“ John Howard, Junior Grand Warden.

“ James Fullton, Grand Secretary.

This is the first time that Brethren of any other Lodge than members of No. 2 appear to hold position as Grand Officers.

The above officers appear to have held office until 1779, except for some changes in the office of Grand Secretary, Bro. Fullton being succeeded prior to 1779 by Bro. Stephen Cronin, and he in turn by Rev. Bro. Dr. William Smith, Provost of the University of Pennsylvania, who had filled the same office for many years with the “Moderns.”

Beyond this date, the reader and Masonic student is referred to the excellent reprint of the Minutes of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, commencing July 29, 1779, and covering a century of its life and activity, which has been most carefully and accurately copied from the original minutes, and published by the Library Committee, under the authority of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

¹³ Hugh Lennox was a leading merchant of Philadelphia.

¹⁴ Wm. Shute was a former Modern Mason, a member of Lodge No. 3, meeting at the Tun Tavern, on Water Street, Philadelphia.

CHAPTER VI.

LODGE No. 2, A. Y. M., 1764-1772.

UNDER JURISDICTION OF PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE.

THE period upon which we now enter, 1764-1772, was destined to be one of political unrest, but appears to have had but little effect upon either the personnel or prosperity of our Lodge—as is shown by the minutes. Philadelphia at this time was the chief city in the western world—first in size, importance and population, as well as in its shipping and commerce. The overthrow of the French in America in 1763—and the close of the French and Indian War—removed a problem which had previously occupied the attention of both the home government and the provinces. Peace once again reigned in our Province. This period of pastoral tranquillity was of but short duration as in 1765 the question of taxation and the stamp act became matters of such controlling and absorbing interest that they dwarfed almost everything else. How the Stamp Act was opposed, and the rejoicings when the news of the

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

“Stamp Act repealed” arrived in 1766 are matters of local history.

Hardly, however, had the Stamp Act excitement subsided when the renewed attempts at Colonial Taxation by the British government excited the Colonists, which resulted in the celebrated non-importation agreements—movements which caused organized resistance and ended in the American Revolution.

Bro. Blaithwaite Jones prefer'd a Recomendation from Baltimore under the hand of one W^m Spener as Secretary of a Lodge held there. But the R W. Grand Master being present and fully Convinced that there is no Regular Lodge in Baltimore the same in itself is and is deemed by this Body as such. This Recomendation was in favor of a Certain Widow.

Bro. James Hume our Secretary has desired his name to be Razed out of our Books as a member the same was spoke of by the W. Master Bro John Howard & was canvas'd but as it was a verbal message the Master ordered it to lie on the Book for a more particular hearing when he might be present himself.

Bro W^m Smith having regular Served his time as an apprentice & worked as fellow Craft was admitted to the Sublime Degree of a Master

The W. Master having thought it Illconvenient to meet on Tuesday nights as several of the Brethren Members of S^t Paul's Church⁷ being thereby deprived

⁷ Saint Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, Third St., between Walnut and Spruce St., was formed principally by persons who had previously been attached to Christ Church; they assembled for the first time for worship as a new congregation in the State House, June 22, 1760, and on 24th of same month the articles of agree-of the Evening Lectures it was Ballotted whether the same could not without greater Ilconveniency be changed. The same was Unanimously Carried in the affirmative it was then put to the Ballott what night was most proper & was determined on the Second Wednesday in Every month. The Secretary to have notice that he may persue according to these minutes.

Extra Lodge met in Videll's Alley Wednesday Evening, June 20, 1770. Lodge in Ample form. Present—Nine Members W. M. Bro Jno. Howard in the Chair.

Transactions.—Our Bro. Secretary Jas. Hume propos'd Mr W^m Koster to become a member of this Lodge and deposited 5/ of his Money in the Worsp^t Masters hands as our Bro Treasurer was not here to lie for his Use. which is ordered to lie on the Books ment signed by 97 members. The present building was opened on Sunday before Christmas, 1761, although not consecrated until January 1, 1831. St. Andrews, Grace and Epiphany owe their existence in a large degree to the zeal and enterprise of the members of this Church.

Rev. William McClenachan was Rector June, 1760, to October, 1765, he removed to Maryland and died there, and Rev. William Stinger Rector May, 1773, to October, 1777, he died at Barnet in England, June 12, 1799. The other Rectors were Rev. Bro. Samuel Magaw, D.D., January, 1781, to March, 1804; Rev. Joseph Pilmore, D.D., March, 1804, to February, 1821; Rev. Bro. Benj. Allen, August, 1821, to January, 1829; Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, D.D., May, 1829, to October, 1833; Rev. Samuel A. McCroskey, D.D., June, 1834, to June, 1836; Rev. James May, D.D., October, 1836, to May, 1840; Rev. Richard Newton, D.D., November, 1840, to 1880.

The W. Master having thought it unnecessary to attend to rights as counsel of the Grand Master of S. Paul Church being thereby deprived of the living & interest it was whether the same could not without further delay be changed the same was unanimously passed on the 11th of June then past to the Ballot what right was most proper to our (Sisterhood) on the 12th of Sunday in every month the Sunday to have notice that he may produce according to the Minutes

CHAPTER VII.

THE GENESIS OF A PROVINCIAL LODGE.

STATEMENTS have been publicly made on divers times in a sister jurisdiction that our early Pennsylvania Lodges were not properly constituted by regular Masonic authority. Thus far the particulars in detail of just how a Masonic Lodge was formed in provincial times was an unknown story.

Of late, however, there has been resurrected from among the musty archives of the R. W. Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, an old leather-bound tome—a minute book, which gives us the whole story from the very inception of the movement until it finally became a duly warranted Lodge of Free and Accepted Ancient York Masons.

This record further shows us the circumspection of these early unaffiliated brethren, and the persistent efforts made by them to obtain a regular warrant. The old tome also shows the fostering care of our Provincial Grand Lodge and its officers, in the welfare not alone of the Brethren, but also of the two

Lodges already established under the Ancient York rite.

A careful perusal of these entries as copied from the old minute book, will prove interesting reading to the Masonic student of the present generations of the twentieth century, and form an important contribution to the Masonic history of the Masonic Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, July 2, 1770.

We whose names are Under Written, being Ancient free and accepted Master Masons, and not now belonging to any particular Lodge, after some consideration have come to a Resolution (as we have a sincere love for the Craft) to associate with an Intention to Petition the Right Worshipful Grand Master for his Warrant to hold a Lodge.

At the Grand Lodge with our Remonstrance

Where present had a hearing, and it was adjudged by them, after mature Consideration, that it was not expedient, nor for the good of the craft, at present to grant us a warrant, not that we were thought undeserving: but on account of some unhappy differences arising in Lodge No. 2 of this City, by which that ancient Body has been reduced to a very declining state, it was therefore thought to be more for the Benefit of the Craft, to assist that Body, than to form a new one, whilst that was so much in want of support, and accordingly recommended to us to join that Body or any other in the city that may be agreeable to us.

July 8, 1771. 42d Meeting.

Present.—Bunbury, Topham, Watts, McGannon and McCauley. Visitor, Stephen McCauley.

Transactions.—Having taken into Mature Consideration the Sentiments of the Grand Lodge, tho we are of the Oppinion had our Remonstrance been laid before them, they may more completely Judge of its Merits (which thro either neglect or design of the D. G. Master was not done) yet notwithstanding, when we understood, that Lodge No. 2 seem'd to want support, we, agreeable, to our always avowed resolution, of our principal Intention and desire in a Constitutional Manner, to promote the prosperity and good of the craft, did Unanimously agree, that for that end, we cou'd not act more Suitably than afford said Lodge, all the Support in our Power, & accordingly did determine, to wait on them on their next stated night of meeting, Conformable to the Recommendation of the Grand Lodge, and to the Invitation of their Master, princuple officers and members in order to join that body.

We will here break off with our record so as not to run ahead of our story; suffice it to say that these Brethren were eventually duly constituted into a regular Lodge which upon the Roster of our Grand Lodge stands as Number 4. How and why they did not affiliate with Lodge Number 2 as recommended by the Grand Lodge will appear in its proper place in our history of that Lodge.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

As stated in a previous chapter the Brethren at their 42d Meeting held July 8th, 1771, who later were constituted as Lodge No. 4, determined to consolidate with Lodge 2 as recommended by the Grand Lodge at the Communication held on the previous 22d of June. The result of this attempt at consolidation is thus recorded in the Transactions of Lodge 4, being their 43d Meeting, held at the Buck, July 22, 1771, viz:

Present.—Bros. Bunbury, Topham, Watts, McGannon, McCauley and Cronin.

Agreed to insert, the behaviour of Lodge No. 2 to us on the 10th Inst. at their monthly meeting where was present did Unanimously agree, that it appear'd to us, that No. 2 was in want of Support, and that it was our Duty as Masons, and for the Benefit of the Craft—to Join that Body, and afford them all the assistance in our Power: pursuant to which we altogether waited on them at their Lodge for that purpose; where on a Ballot we were refused, by one Black ball, avowed by Dr. Gibbs Jones, who at same time declared, he had conversed with several members of No. 3 whom he said would have done as he did, had we applied to join them, upon several times being asked his reasons he gave none, only positively Insisted, if it was to do again he wou'd persevere. And several times asked to know what right the Grand Lodge had to recommend to us, to join their Body, yet at the same time declared he had no objection to any one of us.

Transactions.—Lodge opened in ample form Bro Robert Bunbury was presented to the representative of the Grand Master, and Installed Master of this body until next St John's day, who thereupon did Install Bro Daniel Topham Sen^r Warden and Bro Samuel Watts Jun^r Warden of Said Body for said time.

Business being finished Drank the Rⁱ Worshipfull Grand Master of this Province, the new installed Master, the Grand Lodge, all regularly constituted Lodges round the Globe—And so Concluded the Evening in Harmony.

Henceforth the New Lodge Known upon our Register as Lodge No 4—became an active Masonic body in our Community and during the Revolution was a bright luminary in the Masonic Horizon of the Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania.

CHAPTER VIII.

LODGE No. 2, A. Y. M., 1772-1777.

BEGINNING OF THE REVOLUTIONARY PERIOD.

OUR story of the Lodge during the revolutionary epoch is divided into separate chapters, according to the divers historical periods of that struggle. As this was one of the most important periods in the Masonic history of America in general and Pennsylvania in particular, we have given the minutes of our Lodge in full from 1776 to 1781, as well as all of the names registered as present, both members and visitors.

A careful study of these minutes from 1776 to 1781 will go far to show the influence which our Fraternity exercised toward the attainment of our independence and the formation of our National Government. If the minutes of the other Lodges working under the jurisdiction of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania be compiled for the revolutionary period, and published, it would be seen that almost all of the officers of the American army, from Washington to the subaltern, were members of the Craft, and that the majority owed fealty to the Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

The present chapter brings us down to the beginning of the British occupation of Philadelphia, October, 1777.

The years under consideration in the present chapter were fraught with stirring events, both political and social, and marked the beginning of that great struggle between the mother country and the American Colonies, ending with the independence of the latter, and the formation of the nucleus of a great nation.

The following events are all grouped within the six years covered by this chapter, the most important of which took place in Philadelphia, and wherein members of our venerable Lodge were active factors in the patriot cause: The Boston Tea Party, November, 1773, Boston Port Bill, March 25, 1774; Meeting of Deputies at Philadelphia, September 5, 1774; Declaration of Rights, November 4, 1774; Act of Perpetual Union between the States, May 20, 1775; George Washington appointed Commander in Chief, May, 1775; Continental Congress at Philadelphia, 1774-1776; America declared "Free, Sovereign and Independent" at Philadelphia, July 4, 1776, in the State House built 1734-35, while Franklin was Grand Master of Masons; Hessians surrender to Washington at Trenton, December 25, 1776; Lafayette joins the American Army, 1777, and finally Cornwallis occupies Philadelphia in September, 1777.

These political changes also had their effect upon the Masonic fraternity in Pennsylvania—beneficent to the “Ancients,”—detrimental to the “Moderns.” Thus while the Lodges of the “Moderns” became more or less moribund—on account of the Royalistic proclivity of their members—those of the “Ancients” flourished, and it may be said became a rallying point for such of the prominent men who were actively engaged in the struggle for American independence.

Our Pennsylvania Lodges, originally composed of loyal subjects of England, early in the struggle changed their personnel by the admission of men prominent in the patriot cause, and the records of our three Philadelphia Lodges, Nos. 2, 3 and 4, show many eminent names of historic fame in our country's history who were brought to true Masonic light within their well-tyled portals, until in the autumn of the year 1777, when Philadelphia, for a short time only, by the vicissitudes of war, again fell under British rule.

Thought fit to leave that same in the possession of Bro. P. Sutter for particular reasons, that was at that time laid open to the Lodge. But contrary to the just Decorum of his profession, did expose the same to Brother Proctor, who demanded the same to whom Bro Sutter delivered the same the Worshipfull the Master understanding the circumstances of the affair Demanded the same from Bro Proctor who refused to deliver it unless in due form upon which a Lodge was called upon Bro Proctor promise to attend.⁵ A Lodge was opened in form, But Bro Proctor did not attend according to promise & a summons sent & it was the unanimous Opinion of the Brothers that a Committe should be appointed to wait on Bro Proctor to demand the same, R. W. Bro Matthewman & Bro Parks was appointed to wait upon him, which he [they] readily acquiesced therein.

⁵ This was evidently a move upon the part of Col Proctor to secure the warrant for the use of such members as were upon the Patriot side of the Revolutionary struggle.

CHAPTER IX.

LODGE No. 2, A. Y. M., 1777-1778.

DURING THE BRITISH OCCUPATION.

NO meetings were held by Lodge No. 2 during the British occupation of Philadelphia. Our record closes with a Lodge of Emergency held July 21, 1777, and does not seem to have been again convened until November 6, 1778. The reason for this intermission was chiefly because the personnel of Lodge No. 2 was strictly patriotic. With Lodges Nos. 3 and 4 the case was different. Here the loyalist spirit appears to have been dominant, when the red flag of St. George again waved over Independence Hall. During the rule of Lord Howe in Philadelphia both of those Lodges held regular meetings as loyal subjects of the Grand Lodge of England. Many British officers and local loyalists were, during these nine months, brought to true Masonic light.

So unpatriotic was Lodge No. 3 and actively at work that Right Worshipful Provincial Grand Master Wm. Ball, who does not appear to have been an active patriot, though a kinsman to Washington, placed the Grand Warrant for the time being in the keeping of Lodge No. 3. This venerable document has fortunately come down to us and is now in the archive of the Right Worshipful Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

Another reason why Lodge No. 2 held no meetings during the British occupation, was due to the fact that at the very entrance of the British in Philadelphia, their Lodge room was broken open, and all the jewels, paraphernalia, and books were stolen by the British. This was evidently on account of the patriotic membership.

The only thing of value that did not fall into the hands of the British was the warrant of the Lodge, which, as appears from a previous minute, was secured by Col. Thomas Proctor and placed in safety to prevent it from falling into the hands of the British.

The following extracts from the minutes of Lodges Nos. 3 and 4 throw light upon this period:

With the convening of Lodge No. 2 in the winter of 1778, thanks to the Brethren of Lodges 3 and 4, who recovered the books and some of the jewels and paraphernalia stolen by the British, Lodge No. 2 at once entered upon an era of increased activity, the majority of the applicants being officers in the patriot army, whose names still shine brightly upon the roll of fame—a condition that was true of all of the Philadelphia Lodges, and which culminated in the grand Masonic Pageant on St. John the Evangelist's day of that eventful year.

BROTHER GEORGE WASHINGTON.

BORN FEBRUARY 22, 1732. DIED DECEMBER 14, 1799.

CHAPTER X.

WASHINGTON AND FREEMASONRY.

BEGINNING some time before the outbreak of the American Revolution, and especially during the British occupancy of Philadelphia, September, 1777, to June, 1778, the communications of the Provincial Grand Lodge were more or less interrupted by the exigencies of the times, a condition which caused considerable inconvenience to the various Subordinate Lodges, as appears by the various Minutes to that effect.

After the evacuation of Philadelphia by the enemy in June, 1778, the interest in Freemasonry revived, as is shown by the old Minute Books of Lodges 2, 3 and 4. Finally, when St. John the Evangelist's Day of the above year drew near, it was the opinion that some public demonstration should be made by the then dominant Grand Lodge. The organization of the "Moderns" had virtually ceased to exist, as many of the leading members had left the Province for political reasons; others again had joined the "Ancients."

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

No public Masonic procession had taken place in Philadelphia since the dedication by the "Moderns" of the "Freemason's Lodge" in Lodge Alley, in 1755.

The present time appearing to be favorable, a public pageant was planned by some of the leading Brethren, which for pomp and solemnity was perhaps to surpass any Masonic celebration ever held on this continent.

When it was found that the scheme was favorably received by the Brethren, Grand Master Ball called a meeting to be held at the public house kept by Bro. Alex. Boyle. This was on Walnut Street, a few doors above Second Street. This house, at the time, was the meeting place of Lodge No. 2. Just what took place at the meeting is recorded on the Minutes of Lodge 3 as follows:

Pursuant to resolution embodied in the above Minute, the following advertisement appeared in the Pennsylvania Packet of the following day:

THE Right Worshipful GRAND MASTER of the Antient and Honorable Society of Free and Accepted MASONS of the State of Pennsylvania, &c. and the Officers of the Grand Lodge, hereby give notice, That they have ordered a Procession in the Masonic Form, on Monday the 28th instant. All the Brethren in the City, and all distant Brethren under the grant warrant of Pennsylvania, who can conveniently attend, are earnestly requested to meet the Grand Officers at the College, precisely at Nine o'clock in the forenoon; from whence a Procession will be made to Christ Church, where a sermon will be preached by a Reverend Brother, and a Collection made; the amount of which will be laid out in the purchase of wood and other necessities for the relief of the poor of the city at this inclement season.

There will be performances of vocal and instrumental music, suitable to the solemnity of the occasion.

On December 21, 1778, a meeting was held at the house of Col. Thomas Proctor, of No. 2, where there were present, among others, Bro. William Ball, R. W. Grand Master; Bro. John Wood, R. W. Deputy Grand Master, and Bro. John Howard, R. W. Senior Grand Warden.

The celebration of St. John the Evangelist's Day was taken into consideration,² as well as the mode of refreshment. One of the most important features of the coming pageant suggested, was to invite General George Washington, whose arrival in Philadelphia was expected, to take part in the celebration with the Brethren.

After some consideration, it was resolved that a Committee of two Brethren from Lodges 2, 3 and 4 wait upon Brother Washington upon his arrival and request his attendance.

The Brethren appointed on this Committee were:

Bro. Col. Thomas Proctor	}	Lodge No. 2.
“ “ Isaac Melchoir
“ Jacob S. Howell	}	Lodge No. 3.
“ Major Scull
“ Whitehead	}	Lodge No. 4.
“ Alexander Boyle

For this purpose an address was drawn up to be presented to General Washington, who had come to Philadelphia^{2a} by order of Congress,³ “in order, among other things, to confer with him on the operations of the next campaign.”

Two days later, December 23, 1778, Emergency

^{2a} The arrival of Genl. Washington was described in the Pennsylvania Evening Post, Monday December 28, 1778, as follows:—

“Last Tuesday, (December 22) George Washington, esq., commander in chief of the army of the United States arrived here (Philadelphia). Too great for pomp, and as if fond of the plain and respectable rank of a free and independent citizen, his excellency came in so late in the day as to prevent the Philadelphia, troop of militia lighthorse, gentlemen, officers of the militia, and others of this city, from shewing those marks of unfeigned regard for this good and great man, which they fully intended, and especially of receiving him at his entrance into the State, and escorting him hither.” (Baker, Itinerary, p. 147.)

Lodges were held by both Lodges Nos. 2 and 3, at which the following action was taken:

(Minute Book, Lodge No. 2, p. 63. December 23, 1778.)

Bro Sen. Grand Warden John Howard & Bro Kendell was deputed to wait upon Lodge No 3 in order to concur in drawing up an address to his Excellency General Washington to request his attendance with us in the procession of St John's Day. When Bros Howell & Scull of No 3 were deputed from that Lodge to agree with us, in appointing any members that might be thought proper for the Business, and it was agreed that Brother Col Proctor and Col. Isaac Melchior were appointed for the purpose to meet the committee.

Lodge of Emergency.—Br Jacob S. Howell & Major Scull were appointed to wait upon N^o. 2 to concur in a proper mode to Address his Excellency General Washington to attend the Procession next St. John's day; who report, that The Masters Elect of the different Lodges of this City do personally wait upon Br General Washington & Inform of the time, place & mode of procession.

The result of the call of the joint committee upon General Washington, is best told in the language as recorded in the old Minute Book of Lodge No. 4:

December 25, 1778.—The Committee appointed by Lodges No 2 & 3,—to wait upon Excelency General Washington in the name of all the Lodges in the city in order to walk in Procession on St John's day, report his Excellency was pleased to express "a grateful satisfaction and consent thereto."

St. John the Evangelist's Day, December 27, 1778, falling upon a Sunday, the celebration was held upon Monday, the twenty-eighth, and is said to have surpassed any Masonic celebration in numbers and eclat ever held in America.

The following account of the celebration is copied from the Pennsylvania Packet or the General Advertiser for January 2, 1779:

PHILADELPHIA.

MONDAY last, agreeable to the Constitution of the Most Ancient and Worshipful SOCIETY of FREE and ACCEPTED MASONS, was celebrated as the Anniversary of St. JOHN the Evangelist. At nine o'clock in the morning near THREE HUNDRED of the Brethren assembled at the College, and at eleven o'clock went in regular Procession from thence to Christ Church to attend divine service. The order of Procession was as follows, viz.

1. The Sword-Bearer.
 2. Two Deacons, with blue wands tipt with gold.
 3. The three ORDERS, Dorick, Ionick and Corinthian, borne by three Brethren.
 4. The HOLY BIBLE and Book of Constitutions, on two crimson velvet cushions, borne by the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary.
 5. A Reverend Brother.
 6. Four Deacons, bearing wands.
 7. His Excellency our illustrious Brother GEORGE WASHINGTON, Esquire, supported by the GRAND MASTER William Ball and his Deputy.
 8. The two Grand Wardens, bearing the proper pillars.
 9. The Past Master of the different Lodges.
 10. The present masters of Lodges.
 11. The Senior Wardens,
 12. The Junior Wardens,
 13. The Secretaries,
 14. The Treasurers,

15. Brother Proctor's Band of music.
16. Visiting Brethren.
17. The Members of different Lodges, walking two and two, according to seniority.

The Procession entered the Church in the order of their march, and the Brethren took their seats in the pews of the middle [sic] isle, which were kept empty for their reception. Prayers were read by the Reverend Mr. WHITE, and the following Anthem was sung in its proper place by sundry of the Brethren, accompanied by the Organ and other instrumental music, viz.

After which a most excellent and well adapted Sermon was preached by our Reverend and Worthy Brother WILLIAM SMITH, D. D. The text was taken from the 1st Peter 2d Chapter and 16th Verse. The Brethren have since requested the Sermon to be published, and the profits to be applied to the use of the Poor.

After divine service the Procession returned in the same order to the College; the musical bells belonging to the Church and the band of music playing proper Masonic tunes. The Brethren being all new cloathed, and the officers in the proper Jewels of their respective Lodges, and their other badges of dignity, made a genteel appearance.

The Brethren afterwards departed to their respective Lodges, where they dined together with their usual harmony and sociability; the sum of Four Hundred Pounds having been collected in Church among the Brethren and others their charitable Fellow citizens who honored them with their company, for the relief of the Poor.

N. B. Such charitable Brethren and Others who have not yet had an opportunity of contributing their mite are requested to send the same to any of the following gentlemen, viz. Mess. William Ball, John Wood, John Howard, and William Shute; to whom Objects of Charity, bringing proper recommendations to the house of Mr. Ball in Market-street, after New Year's Day, between the hours of ten and twelve in the forenoon, are to apply.*

The sermon preached upon this festive occasion was published by request of the Grand Officers. A copy of this pamphlet, now exceedingly rare, is in the Library of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

The result of this great Masonic celebration in Philadelphia was two-fold—it renewed the interest of the citizens in the Craft, as it showed that most all of the Brethren were persons known to be in favor of American liberty, in direct contrast to the organization of the older Grand Lodge of “Moderns,” most all of the leading members of which had left the Province on account of their adherence to the mother country, and those who remained joined the “Ancients.” Thus at this time the “Moderns” had practically ceased to exist. Secondly, it brought General Washington into prominence as a Freemason, which culminated with his nomination in the year 1780 as General Grand Master of the Colonies, a scheme in which the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania was a most prominent factor, and which only failed by the strenuous opposition of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts. Almost all of the original correspondence upon this subject is still to be found in the Archives of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, and will be noted in its chronological order.

Brother George Washington left Philadelphia, Tuesday morning, February 2, 1779, as shown by The Pennsylvania Packet of February 4, 1779:

Tuesday Morning His Excellency General Washington set off from Philadelphia to join the army in New Jersey. During the course of his short stay (the only relief he has enjoyed from service since he first entered into it), he has been honored with every mark of esteem which his exalted qualities as a gentleman and a citizen entitle him to. His excellency's stay was rendered the more agreeable by the company of his lady, and the domestic retirement which he enjoyed at the house of the Honorable Henry Laurens, Esquire, with whom he resided.

CHAPTER XI.

LODGE No. 2, A. Y. M., 1778-1780.

THE DAWN OF LIBERTY.

ACTIVE military operations having ceased for the time being in our immediate vicinity, and the local government being again in the hands of the younger or patriotic element, Pennsylvania Freemasonry entered upon a career of activity and prosperity.

It was during the year 1779 that the Provincial Grand Lodge reassembled, and henceforth regular quarterly communications were held, and minutes kept, of which there is an unbroken set down to the present day. The previous minutes from 1761 to 1777 appear to have been lost or destroyed during the British occupation.

Lodge No. 2, having recovered some of its Jewels and other property as before stated, again became an active factor in the Masonic Constellation of Pennsylvania.

Military men were especially anxious to be brought to true Masonic light within our tyled portals. The different army lodges were also actively at work both while in camp and winter quarters.

Among the noteworthy Masonic events to be mentioned during these two years, the efforts made to elect General Washington as a General Grand Master for the United States was undoubtedly the most important one, and forms the subject for the next chapter. Another was the occupation of the Freemason's Lodge in Lodge Alley, by both the Grand Lodge and Lodge No. 2. This was the building dedicated by the "Moderns" in 1755.

During the past three years the building had been used by both contending armies, for hospital purposes, and for a time it served as a place of confinement for the Pennsylvania Quakers accused of sympathy toward the enemy.

It was from the Freemason's Lodge that the imprisoned Quakers issued the "Address to the Inhabitants of Pennsylvania¹" prior to their transportation to Virginia. A copy of this rare pamphlet, which was reprinted in London, is in the Library of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

At the Meeting of February 17, 1779, the following “Ode on Masonry,” composed in honor of Brother Colonel Procter, K. T., was composed and sung by the Brethren:

——— Ab ipso

Ducit opes, animumque ferro. Hor.

FULL CHORUS.

Hail! Celestial Masonry,
Craft that makes us wise and free!
Heav'n-born cherub! bring along
The tuneful band, the patriot song;
See Washington, he leads the train,
'Tis he commands the grateful strain;

The Dawn of Liberty

See ev'ry crafted son obeys,
And to the godlike brother homage pays.

SONG.

Then give to merit what is due,
And twine the mystic bays;
In joyful strains his deeds renew,
And sing the hero's praise.

RECITATIVE.

While time brings mortal honors to decay,
'Tis freedom gives, what time can't steal away.

SONG.

Unbend his brow from martial care,
And give the patriot rest;
Who nobly brav'd the storms of war,
To make his country blest.

RECITATIVE.

Wake from the tomb the souls of martyrs free,
To view this hemisphere of liberty,
Let them with ravished eyes look down upon
The glorious work perform'd by Washington.

SONG.

Then brethren to my lays attend,
And hail our father and our friend;
Let fame resound him thro' the land,
And echo "'Tis our Master Grand."

RECITATIVE.

Begin, ye sons of Solomon,
Prepare the wreath for Washington:

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

'Tis he our ancient craft shall sway,
Whilst we with three times three obey.

SONG.

When evening's solemn hours pervade,
We choose the still masonic shade;
With hearts sincere, our hands upon,
We bless the widow's mystic son.

RECITATIVE.

For you, my friend, the inspired muses sing,
Thou firm opposer of a tyrant king;
Go imitate in fact our glorious head,
And in the Lodge, O Procter, take the lead.

AIR I.

Support the craft with honest pride;
When in the field our foes confound,
Display your iron thunders wide,
And strew the bleeding courses round.

II.

Let patriot fire strain ev'ry nerve,
For Washington upon your smiles;
With him 'tis more than fame to serve,
'Tis fame with him to share his toils.

GRAND CHORUS.

Hail coelestial masonry!
Craft that makes us wise and free;
Heav'n-born cherub! bring along,
The tuneful band, the patriot song;
See Washington, he leads the train,

The Dawn of Liberty

'Tis he commands the grateful strain;
See ev'ry crafted son obeys,
And to the god-like brother homage pays.

Brother

I am to inform you that on the last stated night of Lodge No 3, A Certain Henry Miller was balloted for and rejected.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

By order of the Worshipful Master of Lodge No 3
Feby. 12—1780 GEORGE BOND Sec'y
Worshipful Master of Lodge No 2

In consequence of which it was agreed that if the said Henry Miller should make application to be received into this Lodge he be not Admitted before we Consult with No 3 and know their reasons for rejecting him.

Capt Charles Jones proposed last meeting, having received a dispensation from the R. W. G. M. was Balloted for Approved and entered—Returned thanks and paid his two hundred Dollars.

Bro John Angus member of a Sea Captains Lodge in Sunderland is desirous of becoming a member of this Lodge, According to our Bye-Laws he ought to have lain one month on the Books, but as he intends for Sea as soon as the River is clear, and his Character as a good Mason being so generally known to the Brethren, it was agreed by the members present, that the said By-Law be dispensed with in this Instance he was then balloted for and accepted—Returned, gave thanks and paid his admission money Fifty Dollars of that Evening. A second application was made in their behalf at our last Extra Lodge and their Petitions presented when they were placed on the books.—A question was now put, whether, as those two Gentlemen had not lain on the Books the Stated time Agreeable to our Bye-Laws, they might with propriety be Balloted for at this time? After debate it was agreed, that altho through a small Omission their names had not been Enter'd at our last Stated Meeting, they had nevertheless been proposed to the Lodge at that time, and might therefore now be balloted for without Infringing our Bye-Laws in the least, they were accordingly each Balloted for and Unanimously accepted.

CHAPTER XII.

WASHINGTON AS GENERAL GRAND MASTER.

HE participation of General Washington in the procession in Philadelphia on St. John's Day, December 28, 1778, was the first public Masonic function in which Washington is known to have taken an active part. Henceforth great interest was aroused among the "Ancient" Lodges of Freemasonry, both at home and in the field. The records of the various Lodges working under the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, as well as those in Massachusetts, all bear evidence of the great favor in which our Fraternity was held by the officers of all grades in the Continental Army.

The next Masonic function of which we have a positive knowledge of Washington's presence was at the celebration of the Festival of St. John the Baptist, June 24, 1779. The army was then encamped in Smith's Cove [Orange County, New York] about 14 miles in the rear of the Garrison at West Point.

On the 22d of June, Washington visited West Point,

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

and on the 24th joined with the Brethren of American Union Lodge in celebrating the natal day of one of the patron saints of Freemasonry. It appears that the Lodge was opened at Nelson's Point at 8 a. m., where the officers were elected. The Lodge was then closed until 10 o'clock a. m. at West Point, where being joined by a number of Brethren from other brigades, they proceeded to the "Robinson House," a little below West Point on the opposite side of the river.¹ According to an old record, quoted by Brother James M. Lamberton in his address at the celebration of the Washington Sesqui-Centennial Anniversary, 1902, "After the Lodge had been opened, and after giving the names of those present, the old record continues:"

After the usual ceremonies, the Lodge retired to a bower in front of the house, where being joined by his Excellency General Washington and family, an address was delivered to the brethren and a number of gentlemen collected on the occasion by the Rev. Dr. Hitchcock, followed by an address to the brethren in particular by Bro. Hull (General William Hull). After dinner the following toasts were drank, &c. . . . His excellency Bro. Washington, having returned to the barge attended by the Wardens and Secretary of the Lodge, amidst a crowd of brethren, the music playing "God save America," embarked, his departure was announced by three cheers from the shore, answered by three from the barge, the music beating the "Grenadier's March."

Towards the close of the year 1779, the American army again took up their winter quarters at Morristown in New Jersey. At this place various military Lodges which had been organized in the American army were at work. As St. John the Evangelist's Day drew nigh, the Brethren, having in mind the successful celebration in Philadelphia a year previous, made preparations to hold a Festal Lodge in Morristown upon that occasion, being nominally under care of the American Union Lodge, yet all "Ancient" Brethren in the encampment being invited. For this purpose the "furniture" of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, of Newark, was borrowed. This meeting on December 27, 1779, proved a great success, sixty-eight Brethren being present, one of whom was General Washington.

It has always been a tradition in Masonic circles that General Lafayette was made a Mason upon this occasion, with the use of the jewels and furniture borrowed from St. John's Lodge, No. 1, of New Jersey; but we have that distinguished Brother's statement, made May 4, 1825, to the Grand Lodge of Tennessee, that he had been initiated, young as he was, before he came to this country.

Tradition further tells us that at that meeting the question of a General Grand Master over all the States was also considered.

Washington, from his affiliation with our Pennsylvania Grand Lodge, was naturally held in the highest esteem by his Brethren in Pennsylvania, and from almost the very day of the procession to Christ Church, in Philadelphia, on St. John the Evangelist's Day, 1778, his name was suggested as a General Grand Master over all of the American Colonies. The movement continued to find favor amongst the Craft, and culminated in a motion to that effect at a General

Grand Communication of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, December 20, 1779. A "Grand Lodge of Emergency" was convened on January 13, 1780, and was held in the quaint Lodge room in Videll's Alley, for the express purpose of nominating General Washington as General Grand Master.

Upon this occasion, the Deputy Grand Master, Bro. John Coats, presided, as it will be recalled the Grand Master, Bro. William Ball, was a kinsman of Washington. At this Grand Lodge the following Brethren were present, all of whom approved of the choice of Washington for that exalted office:

This Lodge being called by order of the Grand Master, upon the request of sundry brethren, and also in pursuance of a motion made at the last General Communication, to consider the propriety as well as the necessity of appointing a Grand Master over all the Grand Lodges formed or to be formed in these United States, as the correspondence which the rules of Masonry require cannot now be carried on with the Grand Lodge of London, under whose jurisdiction the Grand Lodges in these States were originally constituted; the ballot was put upon the question: whether it be for the benefit of Masonry that a "Grand Master of Masons throughout the United States" shall be now nominated on the part of this Grand Lodge; and it was unanimously determined in the affirmative.

Sundry respectable brethren being then put in nomination, it was moved that the ballot be put for them separately, and His Excellency George Washington, Esquire, General and Commander-in-Chief of the armies of the United States being first in nomination, he was ballotted for accordingly as Grand Master, and elected by the unanimous vote of the whole Lodge.

Ordered, That the minutes of this election and appointment be transmitted to the different Grand Lodges in the United States, and their concurrence therein be requested, in order that application be made to His Excellency in due form, praying that he will do the brethren and craft the honor of accepting their appointment.

A committee was appointed to expedite the business.

Resolved, That the Masters of the four Lodges, together with the Grand Secretary, be a committee to inform themselves of the number of Grand Lodges in America and the names of their officers, and to prepare the circular letters to be sent them as directed above, with all expedition.³

Washington as General Grand Master

No copy of this circular letter has thus far been found.

About the same time, a petition to the above effect was presented at the meeting of the Lodge at Morristown. Fortified by the pronounced action of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, a committee of the Army Lodges met at Morristown, February 7, 1780, of which Bro. Mordecai Gist, of Maryland, was chosen president, and Bro. Otho H. Williams, of Delaware, secretary.

The following address was presented by Bro. Williams:⁴

To the RIGHT WORSHIPFUL, The GRAND MASTERS of the several Lodges in the Respective UNITED STATES of AMERICA.

UNION——FORCE——LOVE

The subscribers, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons in convention, to you, as the patrons and protectors of the craft upon this continent, perfer their humble address. Unhappily, the distinctions of interest, the political views, and national disputes subsisting between Great Britain and these United States have involved us not only in the general calamities that disturb the tranquility which used to prevail in this once happy country, but in a peculiar manner affects our society, by separating us from the Grand Mother Lodge in Europe, by disturbing our connection with each other, impeding the progress, and preventing the perfection of Masonry in America.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

We deplore the miseries of our countrymen, and particularly lament the distresses which many of our poor brethren must suffer, as well from the want of temporal relief, as for want of a source of light to govern their pursuits and illuminate the path of happiness. And we ardently desire to restore, if possible, that fountain of charity, from which to the unspeakable benefit of mankind, flows benevolence and love: Considering with anxiety these disputes, and the many irregularities and improprieties committed by weak or wicked brethren, which too manifestly show the present dissipated and almost abandoned condition of our lodges in general, as well as the relaxation of virtue amongst individuals.

We think it our duty Right Worshipful Brothers and Seniors in the Craft, to solicit your immediate interposition to save us from the impending dangers of schism and apostasy. To obtain security from those fatal evils, with affectionate humility, we beg leave to recommend the adopting and pursuing the most necessary measures for establishing one Grand Lodge in America, to preside over and govern all other lodges of whatsoever degree or denomination, licensed or to be licensed upon the continent; that the ancient principles and discipline of Masonry being restored, we may mutually and universally enjoy the advantages arising from frequent communion and social intercourse.

To accomplish this beneficial and essential work, permit us to propose that you, the Right Worshipful Grand Masters or a majority of your number, may nominate as Most Worshipful Grand Master of said lodge, a brother whose merit and capacity may be adequate to a station so important and elevated, and transmitting the name and nomination of such brother, together with the name of the lodge to be established, to our Grand Mother Lodge in Europe for approbation and confirmation, and that you may adopt and execute any other ways or means most eligible for preventing impositions, correcting abuses, and for reestablishing the generous principles of Masonry; that the influence of the same in propagating morality and virtue may be far extended, and that the lives and conversation of all true Free and Accepted Masons may not only be the admiration of men on earth, but may receive the final approbation of the Grand Architect of the Universe, in the world wherein the elect enjoy eternal light and love.

We have no special record of any action taken upon this circular by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

The next notice that appears in the Minutes of the Grand Lodge is under date July 27, 1780, wherein it states:

“A petition from B^r W^m. Gray and forty-seven Brethren of the Pennsylvania Line, countersigned and recommended by B^r Col. Proctor, Master of N^o. 19, praying for a Warrant to hold a new travelling Military Lodge, to be attached to the Brethren of the said Line, was read; and the Ballot being put, it was unanimously voted to grant them a Warrant for a New Lodge to be numbered 29.

“A letter from N^o. 16, in Baltimore, with a list of their Members and One Thousand Dollars were received from B^r Bernard, in Lieu of all arrears.

“An account from B^r Tricket amounting to £80.5 for engraving a plate, &c. Ordered to be paid.”

setts, which was the next most important Masonic Jurisdiction in the thirteen Colonies.

It was not until the middle of October that a reply to the Pennsylvania circular was received from the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, and then only in response to a letter written by our Grand Secretary, Rev. Bro. Dr. William Smith. This correspondence was laid before the Grand Lodge at an Extra Communication, held October 16,⁵ 1780, viz.:

5 Lodges represented.

The Grand Secretary communicated copy of a letter written by him to the Right Worshipful Joseph Webb, Esq., Grand Master of Masons in the Massachusetts State, together with Bro. Webb's answer, both of which are as follows:

PHILADELPHIA, August 19th, 1780.

Sir:

I do myself the honor to address you, by order of the Grand Lodge of Ancient York Masons, regularly constituted in the City of Philadelphia. This Grand Lodge has under its jurisdiction in Pennsylvania and the States adjacent, thirty-one different regular Lodges, containing in the whole more than one thousand brethren. Enclosed you have a printed abstract of some of our late proceedings, and by that of January 13th last, you will observe that we have, so far as depends on us, done that honor which we think due to our illustrious Brother, General Washington, viz., electing him Grand Master over all the Grand Lodges formed or to be formed in these United States, not doubting of the concurrence of all the Grand Lodges in America to make this election effectual.

We have been informed by Col. Palfrey that there is a Grand Lodge of Ancient York Masons in the State of Massachusetts, and that you are Grand Master thereof; as such, I am, therefore, to request that you will lay our proceedings before your Grand Lodge, and request their concurrent Voice in the appointment of General Washington, as set forth in the said Minute of January the 13th, which, as far as we have been able to learn, is a Measure highly approved by all the brethren, and that will do honor to the Craft.

BOSTON, September 4th, 1780.

Sir:

Your agreeable favor of the 19th ult., I duly received the 31st, covering a printed abstract of the proceedings of your Grand Lodge. I had received one before, near three months, from the Master of a travelling Lodge of the Connecticut line, but it not coming officially, did not lay it before the Grand Lodge, but the evening after I received yours, it being Grand Lodge; I laid it before them and had some debate on it, whereupon it was agreed to adjourn the Lodge for three weeks, to the 22d instant, likewise to write to all the Lodges under this jurisdiction to attend themselves if convenient by their Master and Wardens, and if not, to give instructions to their proxies here concerning their acquiescence in the proposal.

I am well assured that no one can have any objections to so illustrious a person as General Washington to preside as Grand Master of the United States, but at the same time it will be necessary to know from you his prerogative as such; whether he is to appoint sub-grand or Provincial Grand Masters of each State: if so, I am confident that the Grand Lodge of this State will never give up their right of electing their own Grand Masters and other officers annually. This induces me to write you now, before the result of the Grand Lodge takes place, and must beg an answer by the first opportunity, that I may be enabled to lay the same before them. I have not heard of any State except yours and this that have proceeded as yet since the Independence to elect their officers, but have been hoping that they would.

I do not remember of more Grand Masters being appointed when we were under the British Government than South Carolina, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, New York, and Massachusetts, but now it may be necessary.

I have granted a Charter of Dispensation to New Hampshire till they shall appoint a Grand Master of their own, which suppose will not be very soon as there is but one Lodge in their State. Inclosed I send you a list of the officers of our Grand Lodge, and have the honor to be, with great respect and esteem,

Your affectionate Brother and humble servant,

JOSEPH WEBB,

Grand Master.

The Grand Secretary and Bro. Palfrey were appointed a committee to prepare an answer to the above letter from the Grand Master of Massachusetts, and lay the same before this Lodge to-morrow evening, to which time this Lodge is adjourned.

On the evening of October 17, 1780, the Grand Lodge was reconvened, and the draft of a lengthy letter was presented, which, after setting forth conditions in Europe, where a Grand Master General had been installed, stated the position taken by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, as follows:

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

What the particular authorities of the Grand Master of these United States were to be, we had not taken upon us to describe, but (as before hinted) had left them to be settled by a convention of Grand Lodges or their deputies. But this is certain, that we never intended the different Provincial or State Grand Masters should be deprived of the election of their own Grand Officers, or of any of their just Masonic rights and authorities over the different Lodges within the bounds of their jurisdiction.

But where new Lodges are to be erected beyond the bounds of any legal Grand Lodges now existing, such Lodges are to have their warrants from the Grand Master General, and when such Lodges become a number sufficient to be formed into one Grand Lodge the bounds of such Grand Lodge are to be described, and the warrant to be granted by the Grand Master aforesaid, who may also call and preside in a convention of Grand Lodges when any matter of great and general importance to the whole United Fraternity of these States may require it. What other powers may be given to the Grand Master General, and how such powers are to be drawn up and expressed, will be the business of the convention proposed.

For want of some general Masonic authority over all these States the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania ex necessitate, have granted warrants beyond its bounds to the Delaware and Maryland States, and you have found it expedient to do the same in New Hampshire, but we know that necessity alone can be a plea for this.

By what has been said above, you will see that our idea is to have a Grand Master General over all the United States, and each Lodge under him to preserve its own rights, jurisdiction, etc., under him as formerly under the Grand Lodge of Great Britain, from whence the Grand Lodges in America had their warrants, and to have this new Masonic constitution and the powers of the Grand Master General fixed by a convention of committees aforesaid.

Others we are told have proposed that there be one Grand Master over all these States, and that the other Masters of Grand Lodges, whether nominated by him or chosen by their own Grand Lodges, should be considered as his deputies. But we have the same objections to this that you have, and never had any idea of establishing such a plan as hath been suggested before.

This letter is now swelled to a great length. We have therefore only to submit two things to your deliberation:

First. Either whether it be best to make your election of a Grand Master General immediately, and then propose to us a time and place where a committee from your body could meet a committee from ours to fix his powers and proceed to instalment; or Second. Whether you will first appoint such a place of meeting and the powers of the proposed Grand Master, and then return home and proceed to the election, and afterwards meet anew for instalment. This last mode would seem to require too much time, and would not be so agreeable to our worthy brethren of the army, who are anxious to have this matter completed.

As you will probably choose the first mode, could not the place of our meeting be at or near the headquarters of the army, at or soon after St. John's day next? At any rate, you will not fix a place far northward on account of some brethren from Virginia who will attend, for we propose to advertise the business and the time and place of meeting in the public papers, that any regular Grand Lodges which we may not have heard of may have an opportunity of sending representatives.

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

Your answer as soon as possible is requested under cover to Peter ———, Esq., Postmaster in Philadelphia.

I am, etc., by order,

WILLIAM SMITH, Grand Secretary.

JOSEPH WEBB, Esq., Grand Master of Massachusetts.⁶

A letter was read from the Grand Master of Massachusetts, enclosing the following Resolve of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts:

As this Grand Lodge have not been acquainted with the Opinions of the various Grand Lodges in the United States respecting the choice of a Grand Master General, and the Circumstances of our public affairs making it impossible we shou'd at present obtain their sentiments upon it; Therefore: Voted, That any Determination upon the Subject cannot with the propriety and justice due to the Craft at Large, be made by this Grand Lodge until a general peace shall happily take place thro' the Continent.

All of the original correspondence relating to the above is still in possession of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. With the last letter quoted and reproduced in facsimile, ended the attempt to constitute General Washington Grand Master General of the United States, a scheme so earnestly fostered by Pennsylvania, and only defeated by the negative action of Massachusetts.

A number of propositions to constitute a Grand Master General of the United States have been made since, but the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania has always refused to entertain the proposal.

The belief that Washington was the Grand Master of the United States was widespread, and, as Bro. James M. Lamberton says in his address before mentioned,⁸ notwithstanding the fact that the project to elevate General Washington fell through, "that the action of the Army Lodges and of our Grand Lodge got abroad, is shown by translations of two letters from a Lodge at Cape François, on the island of San Domingo, directed to General Washington as Grand Master of All America, soliciting a charter, which were presented to our Grand Lodge, February 3, 1786. The same thing is shown by a medal struck in 1797, the obverse showing the bust of Washington, with the legend, 'G. Washington President. 1797,' the reverse showing many Masonic emblems, with the legend 'Amor. Honor. Et Justitia G. W. G. G. M.' (i. e., George Washington, General Grand Master).

"This medal has generally been supposed to be of English origin, but there is reason for thinking it the work of a member of this Grand Lodge, Brother Peter Getz, for several years Master of Lodge No. 43, at Lancaster, Pa. One of these medals may be seen in the collection of Washingtoniana in our Temple.

"Still further evidence, showing how widespread was the belief that Washington was a Grand Master, is seen in the entry, incorrect, it is true, made by the Secretary of Barton Lodge, No. 10, at Hamilton, Ontario, in his minutes of December 12, 1800, 'that a letter was read'

'from the Grand Secretary informing this Lodge of Communication received from the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania announcing the death of the R. W. G. Master Washington, and requesting this Lodge to go in mourning at their public and private meetings Six months.' "

CHAPTER XIII.

LODGE No. 2, A. Y. M., 1781-1786.

UNDER THE PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE.

N era of prosperity marked the closing years of Pennsylvania Masonry under the Provincial Jurisdiction. Many men prominent in the service of the State and country at large sought admission to our lodge. Perhaps as the most notable candidate in Lodge No. 2, the name of Peter Duponceau may be mentioned.

Among the notable events in our history within these six years 1781-1786, we have: (1) The publication of the Ahiman Rezon (an abridgment of the Book of Constitutions), 1781-1783, by Rev. Bro. William Smith, D.D., of Lodge No. 2. (2) The first organized effort for the relief of indigent and distressed Masons in March, 1783. (3) The Declaration of Peace between England and America. (4) The establishment of a "Sublime" Lodge "Grand Elect and Perfect Masons" in Philadelphia. (5) The failure upon the part of the Grand Lodge and subordinates to raise money for the purchase of the Freemasons' Lodge of

O ALL and every our Right Worshipful, Worshipful and loving Brethren now residing or who may hereafter reside in the Provinces of New York, New Jersey, and Pensilvania, His Grace, Thomas, Duke of Norfolk, Earl Marshal and Hereditary Marshal of England, Earl of Arundel, Surrey, Norfolk and Norwich, Baron Mowbray, Howard Segrave, Brewse of Gower, Fitz Allan Warren, Clan Oswald, estre Maltraverse, Greystock, Furnival Verdon, Lovelot, Strango of Blackmere, and Howard of Castle Rising, after the Princes of the Royal Blood,

1730 — Freemasonry in Pennsylvania — 1907

First Duke Earl and Baron of England, Chief of the illustrious family of the Howards, Grand Master of the free and accepted Masons of England,

Sendeth Greeting:

Whereas application has been made unto us by our Rt. Worshipful and well beloved Brother, Daniel Cox, of New Jersey, Esqr., and by several other Brethren, free and accepted Masons, residing and about to reside in the said Provinces of New York, New Jersey and Pensilvania, that we would be pleased to nominate and appoint a Provincial Grand Master of the said Provinces:

Now, Know Ye, that we have nominated, ordained, constituted and appointed, and do by these Presents nominate, ordain, constitute and appoint, our Right Worshipful and well beloved Brother the said Daniel Cox, Provincial Grand Master of said Provinces of New York, New Jersey and Pensilvania with full Power and Authority to nominate and appoint his Deputy Grand Master and Grand Wardens for the space of two years from the feast of St. John the Baptist now next ensuing, after which time it is our Will and Pleasure, and we do hereby ordain that the Brethren who do now reside, or who may hereafter reside, in all or any of the said Provinces shall and they are hereby empowered every other year on the feast of St. John the Baptist to elect a Provincial Grand Master, who shall have the power of nominating and appointing his Deputy Grand Master and Grand Wardens.

And we do hereby empower our said Provincial Grand Master and the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and Grand Wardens for the time being, for us and in our place and stead to constitute the Brethren (free and accepted Masons) now residing or who shall hereafter reside in those parts into one or more regular Lodge or Lodges, as he shall think fit, and as often as occasion shall require.

He, the said Daniel Cox, and the Provincial Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and Grand Wardens for the time being taking special care that all and every member of any Lodge or Lodges so to be constituted have or shall be made regular Masons, and that they do cause all and every the Regulations contained in the printed Book of Constitutions, except so far as they have been altered by the Grand Lodge at their Quarterly Meetings, to be kept and observed, and also all such other Rules and Instructions as shall from time to time be transmitted to him or them by us, or Nath'l Blackerly, Esqr., our Deputy Grand Master, or the Grand Master or his Deputy for the time being, and that he, the said Daniel Cox, our Provincial Grand Master of the said Provinces, and the Principal Grand Master for the time being, or his Deputy, do send to us, or our Deputy Grand Master, and to the Grand Master of England or his Deputy for the time being, annually an account in writing of the number of Lodges so constituted, with the names of the several members of each particular Lodge, together with such other matters and things as he or they shall think fit to be communicated for the prosperity of the Craft.

And lastly, we will and require that our said Provincial Grand Master for the time being or his Deputy, do annually cause the Brethren to keep the feast of St. John the Evangelist, and dine together on that day, or (in case any accident should happen to prevent their dining together on that day) on any other day near that time, as the Provincial Grand Master for the time being shall judge most fit, as is done here, and at that time more particularly and at all Quarterly Communications he do recommend a General Charity to be established for the Relief of poor Brethren of the said Province.
